This matter comes before the court on the referral of pretrial management of this case to the undersigned. [ECF No. 20]. On May 25, 2017, the Honorable Terry L. Wooten, Chief United States District Judge, referred this matter to the undersigned pursuant to Local Civ. Rule 73.02(B)(2)(e) (D.S.C.), as it appears Plaintiff is now proceeding pro se. Id.

Because the docket is not clear that Plaintiff was mailed the court’s last order, out of an abundance of caution, the court directs Plaintiff to notify the court by June 16, 2017, of the identity of the new attorney(s) he has retained to represent him in this case or, alternatively, of his desire to proceed with this litigation pro se, i.e., without an attorney. If Plaintiff does not wish to continue this lawsuit, he may request that the court dismiss the case in its entirety. To this end, Plaintiff shall, by June 16, 2017, complete the attached notice and mail it to the Clerk of Court at the address indicated. If Plaintiff fails to file the attached letter with the Clerk within the time prescribed, the court will consider him as proceeding pro se.

Plaintiff is specifically advised that, if no new attorney is obtained to represent his interests, the court will expect this litigation to be conducted in accordance with all provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and that the court is unable to provide him with legal advice. Failure to comply with court rules could have serious consequences including, but not limited to, striking his claims and dismissing the case. Additionally, Plaintiff must keep the Clerk of Court advised in writing (901 Richland Street, Columbia, South Carolina 29201) if his address changes for any reason. Failure to keep the court apprised of his current address may result in an order that this case be dismissed.

The undersigned will issue an amended scheduling order to ensure the Plaintiff is advised of all deadlines in this matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
