This matter is before the court upon the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge.¹ In the Report, the following language appears on page 8:

Petitioner similarly alleges that he requested and was denied access to photographs of the marijuana, chain of custody forms, and staff memoranda on which the DHO based her decision [Entry #1-1 at 6–9]. The DHO noted in her decision that such items are not produced to inmates for reasons of institutional security and safety. [Entry#8-6, Section V].

Language identical to the above quoted language appears in the respondent's memorandum filed before the Magistrate Judge. In reviewing Section 5 of the Disciplinary Hearing Officer's report, this court cannot locate the language to which both defense counsel and the Magistrate Judge refer. In fact, Section V reveals that plaintiff was provided with photographs of the alleged contraband and a chain of custody of the urinalysis. Both parties are requested to address this issue in supplemental briefing. Because this matter appears on this court's list of motions that have been pending almost six months, any briefs provided by either party must be received by September 17, 2014 to be considered.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
