ORDER

Plaintiff, Connie A. Mitchell, brought this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) seeking judicial review of a final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security (“Commissioner”) denying her claim for Supplementary Security Income (“SSI”) and Disability Benefits (“DIB”) pursuant to the Social Security Act. (ECF No. 1). This matter is before the court for review of the Report and Recommendation (“Report”) of the United States Magistrate Judge, made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Civil Rule 73.02(B)(2)(a) (D.S.C.). (ECF No. 27). The Report recommends that the Commissioner’s decision be reversed and remanded pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for further proceedings consistent with the Report. (ECF No. 19 at 20). Specifically, the Magistrate Judge determined that the Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) should “consider and discuss the evidence regarding Plaintiff’s vocal cord impairment, its duration and severity, and any resulting functional limitations on Plaintiff’s ability to communicate.” (ECF No. 19 at 20). Plaintiff has not filed objections to the Report. On January 24, 2018, the Commissioner filed a notice of her intent not to file any objections to the Report. (ECF No. 20). However, Defendant does not concede that her administrative decision denying benefits to Plaintiff was not substantially justified. (ECF No. 20).

The Report has no presumptive weight and the responsibility to make a final determination in this matter remains with this court. See Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261, 270-71 (1976). In the absence of objections, this court is not required to provide an explanation for adopting the Report. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983). Rather, “in the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Accident Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005).

After a thorough and careful review of the record, the court adopts the Report of the Magistrate Judge (ECF No. 19), which is incorporated herein by reference. The Commissioner’s final decision is REVERSED AND REMANDED pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for further administrative review as set forth in the Report.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
