|  | ) |                               |

The court has permitted Richard Briebart to withdraw as attorney of record for Marvin J. Todd and Carolyn Diane Todd in this action. The court will allow the client thirty (30) days within which to notify the court of the identity of the new attorney to represent the client in this case or, alternatively, of the client’s desire to proceed with this litigation without an attorney.<sup>1</sup> To this end, the client shall, within thirty (30) days from the date of this order, complete the attached notice and mail it to the clerk of court at the address indicated. If the client fails to file the attached letter with the clerk within the time prescribed, the court will assume that the client intends to proceed in this litigation without the benefit of an attorney. If the client chooses to proceed pro se, it remains responsible for insuring that the Clerk of Court has a current accurate address.

If no new attorney is obtained, the client is specifically advised that the court will expect this litigation to be conducted in accordance with all provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Failure to comply could have serious consequences including, but not limited to, striking a claim or defense or a pleading.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
