UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,

Plaintiffs

ex rel. FRANK KURNIK,

Plaintiff-Relator,

v.

PHARMERICA CORPORATION, et al.,

Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 3:11-cv-01464-JFA

Whereas, the parties to this Consent Confidentiality Order (“parties”), have stipulated that certain discovery material is and should be treated as confidential, and have agreed to the terms of this order; accordingly, it is this ___ day of October, 2014, ORDERED:

1. Scope. All documents produced in the course of discovery, all responses to discovery requests and all deposition testimony and deposition exhibits and any other materials which may be subject to discovery (hereinafter collectively “documents”) shall be subject to this Order concerning confidential information as set forth below.

2. Form and Timing of Designation. Confidential documents shall be so designated by placing or affixing the word “CONFIDENTIAL” on the document in a manner which will not interfere with the legibility of the document and which will permit complete removal of the Confidential designation. Documents shall be designated CONFIDENTIAL prior to, or contemporaneously with, the production or disclosure of the documents. Inadvertent or unintentional production of documents without prior designation as confidential shall not be deemed a waiver, in whole or in part, of the right to designate documents as confidential as otherwise allowed by this Order.

The inadvertent production of any Discovery Material in this Action will be without prejudice to any claim that the material is privileged or protected from disclosure under the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege or protection (“Privileged Material”). If a party believes that it inadvertently produced Privileged Material (the “Disclosing Party”), the Disclosing Party may notify any party that received the Privileged Material of the claim or privilege and the basis for the material being privileged. After receipt of this written notice from the Disclosing Party, the party that received the material (the “Receiving Party”) must take commercially reasonable efforts to sequester or destroy the Privileged Material and any copies, including without limitation all related metadata, notes, or other documents created from the Privileged Material. Each Receiving Party shall make no further use of the Privileged Material other than to challenge the assertions of privilege as set forth in Paragraph 8 of this Order.

3. Documents Which May be Designated Confidential and/or for "Highly Confidential."

- a. Any party may designate documents as confidential but only after review of the documents by an attorney<sup>1</sup> who has, in good faith, determined that the documents contain information protected from disclosure by statute, sensitive personal information, trade secrets, or confidential research, development, or commercial information. The certification shall be made concurrently with the disclosure of the documents, using the form attached hereto at Attachment A which shall be executed subject to the standards of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Information or documents which are available in the public sector may not be designated as confidential.

b. In addition to designating documents as "CONFIDENTIAL" under this Order, any party to this Litigation and any third-party shall have the right to limit disclosure of documents, portions of documents, or information to outside counsel of record to this Litigation by placing or affixing the words "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" on the document and otherwise complying with the process for the designation of CONFIDENTIAL documents set forth in Paragraph 2 above. Any party, or third-party, may designate documents as Highly Confidential, but only after review of the documents by an attorney who has, in good faith, determined that the documents contain highly sensitive business or personal information, the disclosure of which is highly likely to cause significant harm to an individual or to the business or competitive position of the designating party. Material produced and marked as Highly Confidential may be disclosed only to outside counsel of record for the receiving party and to such other limited categories of persons set forth in Paragraph 5 of this Order unless otherwise ordered by the Court. All documents designated as Highly Confidential also are considered designated as Confidential and subject to the same protections and procedures, unless otherwise specifically enumerated in this Order.

4. Depositions. Portions of depositions shall be deemed confidential only if designated as such when the deposition is taken or within seven business days after receipt of the transcript. Such designation shall be specific as to the portions to be protected.

5. Protection of Confidential Material.

a. General Protections. Documents designated CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL under this Order shall not be used or disclosed by the parties or counsel for the parties or any other persons identified below (¶ 5.b.) for any purposes whatsoever other than preparing for and conducting the litigation in which the documents were disclosed (including any appeal of that litigation).

b. Limited Third Party Disclosures. The parties and counsel for the parties shall not disclose or permit the disclosure of any documents designated CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL under the terms of this Order to any other person or entity except as set forth below, and then only after the person to whom disclosure is to be made has executed an acknowledgment (in the form set forth at Attachment B hereto), that he or she has read and understands the terms of this Order and is bound by it.

(I) Subject to these requirements, the following categories of persons may be allowed to review documents which have been designated CONFIDENTIAL pursuant to this Order:

(a) counsel and employees of counsel for the parties who have responsibility for the preparation and trial of the lawsuit;

(b) parties and employees of a party to this Order but only to the extent counsel shall certify that the specifically named individual party or employee's assistance is necessary to the conduct of the litigation in which the information is disclosed<sup>2</sup>;

<sup>2</sup> At or prior to the time such party or employee completes his or her acknowledgment of review of this Order and agreement to be bound by it (Attachment B hereto), counsel shall complete a certification in the form shown at Attachment C hereto. Counsel shall retain the certification together with the form signed by the party or employee.

(c) court reporters engaged for depositions and those persons, if any, specifically engaged for the limited purpose of making photocopies of documents;

(d) consultants, investigators, or experts (hereinafter referred to collectively as “experts”) employed by the parties or counsel for the parties to assist in the preparation and trial of the lawsuit; and

(e) other persons only upon consent of the producing party or upon order of the court and on such conditions as are agreed to or ordered.

(II) Subject to these requirements, the parties agree that outside counsel of record, and the parties' in-house counsel who have responsibility for the preparation and trial of the lawsuit, and the Court shall have access to documents which have been designated HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL pursuant to this Order but, otherwise, the parties shall confer in good faith to determine the categories of other persons who may be allowed to review such documents. In no event shall such outside or in-house counsel share documents designated HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL with any other individual or entity prior to conferring with counsel for the designating party. Any report created by an expert or consultant relying on or incorporating HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material shall be designated as “Highly Confidential” by the party responsible for its creation and the expert witnesses or consultants may not use HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material for their competitive advantage or for any purpose other than relating to this Action.

c. Control of Documents. Counsel for the parties shall take reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized disclosure of documents designated as Confidential or Highly Confidential pursuant to the terms of this order. Counsel shall maintain a record of those persons, including employees of counsel, who have reviewed or been given access to the documents along with the originals of the forms signed by those persons acknowledging their obligations under this Order.

d. Copies. All copies, duplicates, extracts, summaries or descriptions (hereinafter referred to collectively as “copies”), of documents designated as Confidential or Highly Confidential under this Order or any portion of such a document, shall be immediately affixed with the designation “CONFIDENTIAL” or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" (as applicable) if the word does not already appear on the copy. All such copies shall be afforded the full protection of this Order.

6. Filing of Confidential Materials. In the event a party seeks to file any material that is subject to protection under this Order with the court, that party shall take appropriate action to insure that the documents receive proper protection from public disclosure including: (1) filing a redacted document with the consent of the party who designated the document as confidential; (2) where appropriate (e.g. in relation to discovery and evidentiary motions), submitting the documents solely for in camera review; or (3) where the preceding measures are not adequate, seeking permission to file the document under seal pursuant to the procedural steps set forth in Local Civil Rule 5.03, DSC, or such other rule or procedure as may apply in the relevant jurisdiction. Absent extraordinary circumstances making prior consultation impractical or inappropriate, the party seeking to submit the document to the court shall first consult with counsel for the party who designated the document as confidential to determine if some measure less restrictive than filing the document under seal may serve to provide adequate protection. This duty exists irrespective of the duty to consult on the underlying motion. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as a prior directive to the Clerk of Court to allow any document be filed under seal. The parties understand that documents may be filed under seal only with the permission of the court after proper motion pursuant to Local Civil Rule 5.03.

7. Greater Protection of Specific Documents. No party may withhold information from discovery on the ground that it requires protection greater than that afforded by this Order unless the party moves for an Order providing such special protection.

8. Challenges to Designation as Confidential. Any CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL designation is subject to challenge. The following procedures shall apply to any such challenge.

a. The burden of proving the necessity of a Confidential or Highly Confidential designation remains with the party asserting confidentiality or Highly Confidential status.

b. A party who contends that documents designated CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL are not entitled to confidential or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL treatment shall give written notice to the party who affixed the designation of the specific basis for the challenge. The party who so designated the documents shall have fifteen (15) days from service of the written notice to determine if the dispute can be resolved without judicial intervention and, if not, to move for an Order confirming the Confidential or Highly Confidential designation.

c. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of documents as confidential or Highly Confidential, all material previously designated CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL shall continue to be treated as subject to the full protections of this Order until one of the following occurs:

(I) the party who claims that the documents are confidential or Highly Confidential withdraws such designation in writing;

(II) the party who claims that the documents are confidential or Highly Confidential fails to move timely for an Order designating the documents as confidential or Highly Confidential as set forth in Paragraph 8.b. above; or

(III) the court rules that the documents should no longer be designated as confidential or Highly Confidential information.

d. Challenges to the Confidential or Highly Confidential status of documents may be made at any time and are not waived by the failure to raise the challenge at the time of initial disclosure or designation.

9. Treatment on Conclusion of Litigation.

a. Order Remains in Effect. All provisions of this Order restricting the use of documents designated CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of the litigation unless otherwise agreed or ordered.

b. Return of CONFIDENTIAL Documents. Within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of the litigation, including conclusion of any appeal, all documents subject to this Order, including copies as defined above (¶5.d.) shall be returned to the producing party unless: (1) the document has been entered as evidence or filed (unless introduced or filed under seal); (2) the parties stipulate to destruction in lieu of return; or (3) as to documents containing the notations, summations, or other mental impressions of the receiving party, that party elects destruction. Notwithstanding the above requirements to return or destroy documents, counsel may retain attorney work product including an index which refers or relates to information designated CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL so long as that work product does not duplicate verbatim substantial portions of the text of confidential documents. This work product continues to be Confidential or Highly Confidential under the terms of this Order. An attorney may use his or her work product in a subsequent litigation provided that its use does not disclose the confidential information therein.

10. Order Subject to Modification. This Order shall be subject to modification on motion of any party or any other person who may show an adequate interest in the matter to intervene for purposes of addressing the scope and terms of this Order. The Order shall not, however, be modified until the parties shall have been given notice and an opportunity to be heard on the proposed modification.

11. No Judicial Determination. This Order is entered based on the representations and agreements of the parties and for the purpose of facilitating discovery. Nothing herein shall be construed or presented as a judicial determination that any specific document or item of information designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL by counsel is subject to protection under Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or otherwise until such time as a document-specific ruling shall have been made.

12. Persons Bound. This Order shall take effect when entered and shall be binding upon: (1) counsel who signed below and their respective law firms; and (2) their respective clients.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
