

independent basis for precluding coverage under the Policy of any claims by or against Defendants arising out of the Accident. For these reasons and as more fully explained in Plaintiff's memorandum in support of entry of default judgment (ECF No. 17-1), the court grants the relief requested in the complaint.

The court, therefore, declares that Defendants are entitled to no coverage and no duty of defense under Plaintiff's Policy No. 6139C 842547 for any claim arising out of the January 8, 2014 Accident.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
