Plaintiff Patrick Studley (“Plaintiff”), proceeding pro se, brings this action alleging claims of workplace sexual harassment and discrimination on behalf of his wife and sister. Plaintiff files this action in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. § 1915. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants created a sexually charged work environment which led to the dissolution of Plaintiff’s marriage with his wife. (ECF No. 1 at 4). Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants should be held responsible for sexual harassment for inappropriate comments that Defendant Studemeyer made to Plaintiff’s wife. (ECF No. 1 at 3). Furthermore, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants engaged in workplace discrimination when they refused to hire Plaintiff’s sister based on her looks. (ECF No. 1 at 4). Plaintiff seeks compensatory damages in the amount of $45,000.00 and punitive damages. (ECF No. 1 at 5).

This matter is before the court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B), which requires the court to dismiss civil actions filed in forma pauperis if they are frivolous or fail to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Local Civil Rule 73.02, D.S.C., the matter was referred to United States Magistrate Judge Paige Gossett for a Report and Recommendation. On April 15, 2016, the Magistrate Judge issued a Report and Recommendation (“Report”) recommending the court dismiss the petition without prejudice and without service of process because to the extent that Plaintiff states a cognizable claim, Plaintiff does not have standing to bring the claim on behalf of his wife and sister. (ECF No. 11). The Report sets forth the relevant facts and legal standards, which this court incorporates herein without a recitation.

The Magistrate Judge’s Report is made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) and Local Civil Rule 73.02 for the District of South Carolina. The Magistrate Judge makes only a recommendation to this court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight. The responsibility to make a final determination remains with this court. See Matthews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261, 270-71 (1976). This court is charged with making a de novo determination of those portions of the Report to which specific objections are made, and the court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the Magistrate Judge’s recommendation, or recommit the matter with instructions. See 28 U.S.C. § 636 (b)(1). Objections to a Report and Recommendation must specifically identify portions of the Report and the basis for those objections. Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). “[I]n the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must ‘only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.’” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 316 (4th Cir. 2005) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 72 advisory committee’s note).

Plaintiff was advised of his right to file objections to the Report.¹ (ECF No. 11 at 7). Plaintiff was required to file objections by May 2, 2016. To date, Plaintiff has not filed any objections to the report. Accordingly, this court has reviewed the Report of the Magistrate Judge and does not find clear error.

After a thorough review of the Report and the record in this case, the court finds the Report provides an accurate summary of the facts and law. The court ADOPTS the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation (ECF No. 11). It is therefore ORDERED that Plaintiff's action (ECF No. 1) is DISMISSED without prejudice and service of process.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
