CONFIDENTIALITY ORDER

C.A. No.: 3:19-cv-00288-JMC

Whereas, the parties to this Consent Confidentiality Order (“parties”) have stipulated that certain discovery material is and should be treated as confidential, and have agreed to the terms of this order; accordingly, it is this 23rd day of May, 2019, ORDERED:

1. Scope. All documents produced in the course of discovery, all responses to discovery requests, and all deposition testimony and deposition exhibits and any other materials which may be subject to discovery (hereinafter collectively “Documents”) shall be subject to this Order concerning confidential information as set forth below.

2. Form and Timing of Designation. Confidential Documents shall be so designated by placing or affixing the word “CONFIDENTIAL” on the Document in a manner which will not interfere with the legibility of the Document and which will permit complete removal of the Confidential designation.

Any Party may also designate certain Documents as “Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” (hereinafter, “Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material”). This designation shall be limited to such Documents that the designating Party believes, in good faith, contain highly sensitive information, the disclosure of which is likely to cause harm to the competitive position of the designating Party or the broader disclosure of which would violate any Party or third parties’ constitutional right to financial privacy. All Attorneys' Eyes Only Documents are included within the meaning of "CONFIDENTIAL" information as used in this Order and, except with respect to the classes of individuals who may view Attorneys' Eyes Only Documents, all the provisions set forth in the Order that apply to CONFIDENTIAL Documents also apply to Attorneys' Eyes Only Documents. Documents produced or written responses served in this Action in response to a request for production, or otherwise, relating to matters which the designating Party deems to be Attorneys' Eyes Only Documents shall be designated as such. Each Document or page of a written response so designated shall be marked with the words "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only."

Documents shall be designated CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only prior to, or contemporaneously with, the production or disclosure of the documents. Inadvertent or unintentional production of documents without prior designation as CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only shall not be deemed a waiver, in whole or in part, of the right to designate documents as CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only as otherwise allowed by this Order.

If any Party or non-Party inadvertently fails to designate any document(s) or written response(s) to a discovery request as CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only at the time of production or service of the response, it may correct its error by notifying opposing counsel in writing and providing opposing counsel substitute copies of any document(s) or response(s) appropriately marked as CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the substitute copies, the receiving Party shall return or destroy the previously unmarked items and all copies thereof. Similarly, if any Party inadvertently designates any document(s) or written response(s) as CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only, it may correct its error by notifying opposing counsel in writing and providing opposing counsel with substitute copies of the document(s) or response(s) without the Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only designation. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the substitute copies, the receiving Party shall return or destroy the previously marked items and all copies thereof.

In the event of a disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only documents to a person not authorized to have had such disclosure made to him or her under the provisions of this Stipulation and Protective Order, and in the event the Party responsible for having made or allowed such disclosure becomes aware of such disclosure, that Party shall immediately inform counsel for the Party whose CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only documents have thus been disclosed of all relevant information concerning the nature and circumstances of such disclosure. The responsible Party shall also take all reasonable measures promptly to ensure that no further or greater unauthorized disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only documents is made by anyone.”

3. Documents Which May be Designated Confidential. Any party may designate documents as CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only, but only after review of the documents by an attorney¹ who has, in good faith, determined that the documents contain information protected from disclosure by statute, sensitive personal information, trade secrets, or confidential research, development, or commercial information. The certification shall be made concurrently with the disclosure of the documents, using the form attached hereto at Attachment A which shall be executed subject to the standards of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

4. Depositions. Portions of depositions shall be deemed confidential only if designated as such when the deposition is taken or within thirty business days after receipt of the transcript. Such designation shall be specific as to the portions to be protected.

5. Protection of Confidential Material.

a. General Protections. Documents designated CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only under this Order shall not be used or disclosed by the parties or counsel for the parties or any other persons identified below (¶ 5.b. and ¶ 5.c.) for any purposes whatsoever other than preparing for and conducting the litigation in which the documents were disclosed (including any appeal of that litigation). The parties shall not disclose documents designated as CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only to putative class members not named as plaintiffs in putative class litigation unless and until one or more classes have been certified.

b. Limited Third Party Disclosures. The parties and counsel for the parties shall not disclose or permit the disclosure of any documents designated CONFIDENTIAL under the terms of this Order to any other person or entity except as set forth in subparagraphs (1)-(5) below, and then only after the person to whom disclosure is to be made has executed an acknowledgment (in the form set forth at Attachment B hereto), that he or she has read and understands the terms of this Order and is bound by it. Subject to these requirements, the following categories of persons may be allowed to review documents which have been designated CONFIDENTIAL pursuant to this Order:

- (1) counsel and employees of counsel for the parties who have responsibility for the preparation and trial of the lawsuit;
- (2) parties and employees of a party to this Order, but only to the extent counsel shall certify that the specifically named individual party or employee’s assistance is necessary to the conduct of the litigation in which the information is disclosed²;

(3) court reporters engaged for depositions and those persons, if any, specifically engaged for the limited purpose of making photocopies of documents;

(4) consultants, investigators, or experts (hereinafter referred to collectively as “experts”) employed by the parties or counsel for the parties to assist in the preparation and trial of the lawsuit; and

(5) other persons only upon consent of the producing party or upon order of the court and on such conditions as are agreed to or ordered.

c. Attorneys’ Eyes Only Disclosure. Documents designated as Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only shall not be disclosed to any other person or entity except as set forth in subparagraphs (1)-(7) below, and then only after the person to whom disclosure is to be made has executed an acknowledgment (in the form set forth at Attachment B hereto), that he or she has read and understands the terms of this Order and is bound by it. Subject to these requirements, the following categories of persons may be allowed to review documents which have been designated Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only pursuant to this Order:

(1) the Court and court personnel in accordance with the provisions set forth herein below;

(2) mediators, referees, or other neutral designees of the Court or the Parties for the purpose of dispute resolution;

(3) court reporters who record depositions or other testimony in this action;

² At or prior to the time such party or employee completes his or her acknowledgment of review of this Order and agreement to be bound by it (Attachment B hereto), counsel shall complete a certification in the form shown at Attachment C hereto. Counsel shall retain the certification together with the form signed by the party or employee.

- (4) outside counsel of record for the Parties, as well as their paralegals, secretarial and clerical assistants, and employees of such counsel who are actively working on this matter,
- (5) independent experts that have been retained by the Parties in connection with this Action;
- (6) any individual or entity expressly named in the particular Confidential Documents as having authored or received the information contained in that Confidential Documents; and
- (7) any other person or Party upon the written agreement of the Party or non-Party that designated the Documents as Attorneys' Eyes Only Material (which agreement may be recorded in a deposition or other transcript), or pursuant to court order after regularly-noticed motion.

d. Control of Documents. Counsel for the parties shall take reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized disclosure of documents designated as CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only pursuant to the terms of this order. Counsel shall maintain a record of those persons, including employees of counsel, who have reviewed or been given access to the documents along with the originals of the forms signed by those persons acknowledging their obligations under this Order.

e. Copies. All copies, duplicates, extracts, summaries or descriptions (hereinafter referred to collectively as "copies"), of documents designated as CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only under this Order or any portion of such a document, shall be immediately affixed with the designation "CONFIDENTIAL" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" if those words do not already appear on the copy. All such copies shall be afforded the full protection of this Order.

6. Filing of Confidential Materials. In the event a party seeks to file any material that is subject to protection under this Order with the court, that party shall take appropriate action to insure that the documents receive proper protection from public disclosure including: (1) filing a redacted document with the consent of the party who designated the document as confidential; (2) where appropriate (e.g. in relation to discovery and evidentiary motions), submitting the documents solely for in camera review; or (3) where the preceding measures are not adequate, seeking permission to file the document under seal pursuant to the procedural steps set forth in Local Civil Rule 5.03, DSC, or such other rule or procedure as may apply in the relevant jurisdiction. Absent extraordinary circumstances making prior consultation impractical or inappropriate, the party seeking to submit the document to the court shall first consult with counsel for the party who designated the document as confidential to determine if some measure less restrictive than filing the document under seal may serve to provide adequate protection. This duty exists irrespective of the duty to consult on the underlying motion. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as a prior directive to the Clerk of Court to allow any document be filed under seal. The parties understand that documents may be filed under seal only with the permission of the court after proper motion pursuant to Local Civil Rule 5.03.

7. Greater Protection of Specific Documents. No party may withhold information from discovery on the ground that it requires protection greater than that afforded by this Order unless the party moves for an Order providing such special protection.

8. Challenges to Designation as Confidential. Any CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only designation is subject to challenge. The following procedures shall apply to any such challenge.

a. The burden of proving the necessity of a CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only designation remains with the party asserting confidentiality.

b. A party who contends that documents designated CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only are not entitled to confidential treatment shall give written notice to the party who affixed the designation of the specific basis for the challenge. The party who so designated the documents shall have fifteen (15) days from service of the written notice to determine if the dispute can be resolved without judicial intervention and, if not, to move for an Order confirming the Confidential designation.

c. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of documents as confidential, all material previously designated CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only shall continue to be treated as subject to the full protections of this Order until one of the following occurs:

(1) the party who claims that the documents are confidential withdraws such designation in writing;

(2) the party who claims that the documents are confidential fails to move timely for an Order designating the documents as confidential as set forth in paragraph 8.b. above; or

(3) the court rules that the documents should no longer be designated as confidential information.

d. Challenges to the confidentiality of documents may be made at any time and are not waived by the failure to raise the challenge at the time of initial disclosure or designation.

9. Treatment on Conclusion of Litigation.

a. Order Remains in Effect. All provisions of this Order restricting the use of documents designated CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of the litigation unless otherwise agreed or ordered.

b. Return of CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only Documents. Within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of the litigation, including conclusion of any appeal, all documents treated as confidential under this Order, including copies as defined above (§5.e.) shall be returned to the producing party unless: (1) the document has been entered as evidence or filed (unless introduced or filed under seal); (2) the parties stipulate to destruction in lieu of return; or (3) as to documents containing the notations, summations, or other mental impressions of the receiving party, that party elects destruction. Notwithstanding the above requirements to return or destroy documents, counsel may retain attorney work product including an index which refers or relates to information designated CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only so long as that work product does not duplicate verbatim substantial portions of the text of confidential documents. This work product continues to be subject to the confidentiality provisions of this Order. An attorney may use his or her work product in a subsequent litigation provided that its use does not disclose the confidential documents.

10. Order Subject to Modification. This Order shall be subject to modification on motion of any party or any other person who may show an adequate interest in the matter to intervene for purposes of addressing the scope and terms of this Order. The Order shall not, however, be modified until the parties shall have been given notice and an opportunity to be heard on the proposed modification.

11. No Judicial Determination. This Order is entered based on the representations and agreements of the parties and for the purpose of facilitating discovery. Nothing herein shall be construed or presented as a judicial determination that any specific document or item of information designated as CONFIDENTIAL or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only by counsel is subject to protection under Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or otherwise until such time as a document-specific ruling shall have been made.

12. Persons Bound. This Order shall take effect when entered and shall be binding upon: (1) counsel who signed below and their respective law firms; and (2) their respective clients.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
