The pro se plaintiff brings that action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 raising various unintelligible allegations discussing events spanning a period of approximately 25 years.

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this action¹ has prepared a Report and Recommendation wherein she suggests that this court should dismiss the action without prejudice because the complaint fails to state a federal cause of action. The Magistrate Judge also suggests that the plaintiff cannot cure the deficiencies of his complaint and amendment would be futile. The Report sets forth in detail the relevant facts and standards of law on this matter, and the court incorporates such without a recitation.

The plaintiff was advised of his right to file objections to the Report and Recommendation, which was entered on the docket on April 19, 2019 (ECF No. 6). However, the plaintiff did not file objections and the time within which to do so has now expired. In the absence of specific objections to the Report of the Magistrate Judge, this court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983). The court must “only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005).

After carefully reviewing the applicable laws and the record in this case, this court accepts the Magistrate Judge’s Report and Recommendation and finds that that the Report fairly and accurately summarizes the facts and applies the correct principles of law.

Accordingly, this action is dismissed without prejudice and without issuance and service of process.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
