CIV. 13-5039

CLERK

Petitioner,

-vs-

OPINION AND ORDER

WARDEN DOOLEY;
WARDEN DOUGLAS WEBER; and
THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA;

Respondents.

Petitioner, Wade Elliot Bowles, an inmate at the Mike Durfee State Prison, has filed a pro se petition for writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

In late 2008 or early 2009, Petitioner pled guilty to two counts of aggravated assault and was sentenced to 15 years in prison on one count and 10 years imprisonment on the second count, to be served consecutively. Petitioner appealed his conviction but later withdrew his appeal. Petitioner filed a state habeas petition but it is unclear when it was filed or if it was considered on the merits. See Doc. 1.

DISCUSSION

Petitioner’s instant federal habeas petition is governed by the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act (AEDPA), which imposes a one-year statute of limitations for filing federal habeas petitions. 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(1); Beery v. Ault, 312 F.3d 948, 949 (8th Cir. 2003). The federal limitations period runs from the date on which Petitioner’s state judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of time for seeking direct review. Id. By Supreme Court rule, a petitioner has 90 days from the date of entry of judgment in a state court of last resort to petition for certiorari. Id., Sup. Ct. R. 13. The statute of limitations is tolled, however, while “a properly filed application for State post-conviction review is pending.” Id.; § 2244(d)(2). See generally, Painter v. State of Iowa, 247 F.3d 1255, 1256 (8th Cir. 2001) (“a review of our cases makes clear, however, that the time between the date that direct review of a conviction is completed and the date that an application for state post-conviction relief is filed counts against the one-year period.”). See also Curtiss v. Mount Pleasant Correctional Facility, 338 F.3d 851, 853 (rejecting the suggestion that the federal filing deadline had not expired because state petition was timely filed according to state law, and federal petition was filed within one year after state statute of limitations had expired); Jackson v. Ault, 452 F.3d 734, 735 (8th Cir. 2006) (“It does not matter that [petitioner’s] . . .state post conviction relief application was timely filed under [state] law. The one year AEDPA time limit for federal habeas filing cannot be tolled after it has expired.”).

The Court may raise the statute of limitations issue sua sponte. Day v. McDonough, 126 S.Ct. 1675, 1684, 164 L.Ed.2d 376 (2006). The Court must, before acting on its own initiative to dismiss the federal petition based on the AEDPA statute of limitations, “accord the parties fair notice and opportunity to present their positions.” Id. Further, the Court must “assure itself that the Petitioner is not significantly prejudiced by the delayed focus on the limitation issue, and determine whether the interests of justice would be better served by addressing the merits or dismissing the petition as time barred.” Id. Accordingly, the Court will order the parties to show cause why his federal petition should not be dismissed as untimely.

CONCLUSION AND ORDER

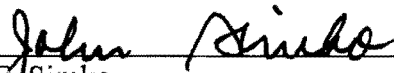

Accordingly, it is hereby

ORDERED that:

- (1) The Clerk of Court is directed to serve upon the Attorney General of the State of South Dakota, a copy of the petition and this Order;
- (2) On or before July 10, 2013, the parties shall file briefs, documentation, and/or other appropriate authority showing cause why Petitioner’s federal habeas petition, filed May 20, 2013, should not be dismissed as untimely pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(1).

Dated this 21 day of May, 2013.

BY THE COURT:

John E. Simko
United States Magistrate Judge
