Now before the Court is a filing by Plaintiff Ronald Taylor, which, in substance, is a request for discovery. The Court finds that all of the matters in which Mr. Taylor has filed this request for discovery have been dismissed. The Court further finds that Mr. Taylor did not obtain a judgment in any of these matters and has not shown good cause for permitting post-judgment discovery pursuant to Rule 69 of the Federal Rules of Discovery.

Accordingly, the Court finds that the Plaintiff's request for discovery, filed October 14, 2014, is not well-taken, and it is DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
