MEMORANDUM OPINION

Plaintiff, a pretrial detainee confined at the Laurel County Correctional Center in London, Kentucky, has filed a civil rights complaint for, inter alia, violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983 [Doc. 1], an emergency motion for a temporary restraining order [Doc. 2], and a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis in this action [Doc. 5].

Plaintiff’s complaint and emergency motion are filed against the Laurel County Correctional Center and its employees, and the claims contained in the complaint relate to conditions of Plaintiff’s confinement therein. The general venue statute for federal district courts provides in relevant part, as follows:

A civil action may be brought in — (1) a judicial district in which any defendant resides, if all defendants are residents of the State in which the district is located; (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated; or (3) if there is no district in which an action may otherwise be brought as provided in this section, any judicial district in which any defendant is subject to the court's personal jurisdiction with respect to such action.

28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1)-(3).

As noted above, Plaintiff's complaint set forth claims arising in the Laurel County Correctional Center. The Laurel County Correctional Center is located in Laurel County, Kentucky, which lies within the judicial district for the Eastern Division of Kentucky. 28 U.S.C. § 97(a). The Court therefore concludes that the proper venue for this case is in the Eastern District of Kentucky. Accordingly, the Clerk will be DIRECTED to transfer this entire action to the Eastern District of Kentucky and CLOSE this Court's file. See 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a) (providing federal district court may transfer a civil action to any district or division where it could have been originally filed "in the interest of justice").

IT IS SO ORDERED.
