

with prejudice [Id. at 2]. The show cause order was entered on March 4, 2019, and was sent to Plaintiff at his last reported address [Doc. 8]. It was returned as undeliverable and unable to be forwarded with a notation “no longer here” [Doc. 9].

Plaintiff has not provided the Court with an updated address as required under the Local Rules. See E.D. Tenn. L.R. 83.13. In addition, more than fifteen days have passed and Plaintiff has not responded to the show cause order or communicated with the Court in any way. Id. Nor has he completed and returned the service packets as directed by the Court’s August 16, 2018, order [Doc. 6].

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) provides for involuntary dismissal of a complaint if “the plaintiff fails to prosecute or to comply with these rules or a court order” See, e.g., Knoll v. Am. Tel. & Tel. Co., 176 F.3d 359, 362-63 (6th Cir. 1999). Dismissal under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) may be sua sponte. Jourdan v. Jabe, 951 F.2d 108, 109 (6th Cir. 1991). In determining whether involuntary dismissal is warranted under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) for failure to prosecute, a court is to consider four factors:

- (1) whether the party’s failure is due to willfulness, bad faith, or fault;
- (2) whether the adversary was prejudiced by the dismissed party’s conduct;
- (3) whether the dismissed party was warned that failure to cooperate could lead to dismissal; and
- (4) whether less drastic sanctions were imposed or considered before dismissal was ordered.

Schafer v. City of Defiance Police Dep’t, 529 F.3d 731, 737 (6th Cir. 2008).

As to the first factor, the Court finds that Plaintiff’s failure to comply with the Court’s orders is due to his own willfulness and fault. Local Rule 83.13 imposes upon a pro se litigant the obligation to both monitor the progress of his case and to prosecute it diligently. Moreover, that same rule provides that the failure of a pro se Plaintiff to timely respond to an order sent to the last address provided to the Clerk may result in dismissal of the case. Here, the record shows that the Court's order directing Plaintiff to return the service packets was mailed to Plaintiff at his last reported address and was refused [Docs. 6, 7]. The show cause order was sent to Plaintiff's last reported address and has been returned as undeliverable with no forwarding address [Docs. 8, 9]. Moreover, Plaintiff failed to notify the Court of his address change in violation of Local Rule 83.13.

The case law is clear that "while pro se litigants may be entitled to some latitude when dealing with sophisticated legal issues, acknowledging their lack of formal training, there is no cause for extending this margin to straightforward procedural requirements that a layperson can comprehend as easily as a lawyer." Jourdan, 951 F.2d at 109. The Court's orders set clear and firm deadlines for Plaintiff to follow. He nevertheless failed to adhere to those deadlines, in violation of both the local rules and the orders themselves. Accordingly, the first factor weighs in favor of dismissal.

As to the second factor, the Court finds that, because service was never issued, Plaintiff's failure to comply with the Court's orders has not prejudiced Defendants.

As to the third factor, the record shows that both of the Court's orders warned Plaintiff that his case would be dismissed if he failed to comply within the allotted timeframes [Doc. 6 at 9; Doc. 8 at 2]. Had Plaintiff pursued or monitored this case as required under Local Rule 83.13, he would have been aware of these attempts to place him on notice of the consequences of non-compliance, and this factor also weighs in favor of dismissal.

Finally, as to the fourth factor, the Court finds that any alternative sanctions would not be effective. Plaintiff not only has failed twice now to respond to Court orders, he even refused to accept the mail containing the Court's August 16, 2018, order. Moreover, he has failed to provide an updated address and otherwise has failed to monitor or pursue this action in any way since filing his amended complaint on August 6, 2018 [Doc. 5]. Any further attempts to prod Plaintiff into compliance through the imposition of a lesser sanction than dismissal would appear to be futile.

For the reasons set forth above, the Court concludes that the relevant factors weigh in favor of the dismissal of this action. Accordingly, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b), this action will be DISMISSED with prejudice for want of prosecution and for failure to comply with the Court's orders and the local rules of court. McGore v. Wrigglesworth, 114 F.3d 601, 605 (6th Cir. 1997) overruled on other grounds by Jones v. Bock, 549 U.S. 199 (2007).

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) and Rule 24 of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, the Court CERTIFIES that any appeal from this action would not be taken in good faith and would be totally frivolous. Therefore, any application by Petitioner for leave to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal will be DENIED. See Fed. R. App. P. 24.

AN APPROPRIATE ORDER WILL ENTER.
