

to represent them, that the clients consented to his withdrawal as their counsel, that he was working with them to obtain new counsel, and that the parties “expect to secure substitute representation shortly.” (Docket No. 228.) The court granted the motion on June 2, 2014. (Docket No. 230.) Attorney Walthart did not file a corresponding motion seeking to withdraw, which the court presumes was an oversight.

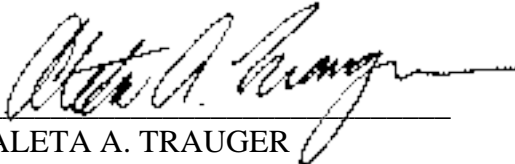

On June 17 and July 8, 2014, attorneys at the law firm of McKellar Hyde, PLC filed appearances on behalf of TCG and the Spigners. (Docket Nos. 236 and 247.) Subsequent to Mr. Oakley’s withdrawal, no attorneys have appeared on behalf of Superior or individual defendants Garrett and Franklin.

By July 24, 2014, attorney Walthart shall file a clarification of his status as counsel for one or more parties in this case or, if appropriate, a Motion to Withdraw. Assuming that attorney Walthart no longer represents Superior, Superior has until August 1, 2014 to have counsel file an appearance on its own behalf. See Doherty v. Am. Motors Corp., 728 F.2d 334 (6th Cir. 1984) (“The rule of this circuit is that a corporation cannot appear in federal court except through an attorney.”) Failure to do so will result in a default judgment.

The Clerk is directed to forward a copy of this Order to attorney Walthart.

It is so ORDERED.
