UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
NASHVILLE DIVISION

In re Bridgestone Securities Litigation

Master File No. 3:01-0017

SUMMARY NOTICE OF
PENDENCY OF CLASS ACTION, PROPOSED SETTLEMENT, MOTION
FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

If you purchased Bridgestone Corporation (“Bridgestone”) publicly traded common stock or American Depositary Receipts (“ADRs”) during the period from March 30, 2000 to and including August 31, 2000 (the “Class Period”), and are not otherwise excluded from the Class, then you could receive a payment from the proposed settlement of a securities class action.

A settlement has been proposed in a class action about the alleged artificial inflation of the price of Bridgestone publicly traded common stock and ADRs during the Class Period. The settlement will provide a settlement fund of thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) for the benefit of investors who purchased Bridgestone publicly traded common stock or ADRs during the period from March 30, 2000 to and including August 31, 2000. If you qualify, you may send in a claim form to get benefits, you can exclude yourself from the settlement, or you can object to the settlement.

The United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee, Nashville Division, authorized this Summary Notice. Before any money is paid, the Court will have a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement.

What Is the Lawsuit About?

This action arises from the August 9, 2000 voluntary recall by Bridgestone’s U.S. subsidiary, Bridgestone/Firestone, Inc., now known as Bridgestone Firestone North American Tire LLC (“Firestone”) of certain ATX, ATX II, and Wilderness AT tires. The Action involves allegations that Defendants Bridgestone and Firestone made false and misleading statements in violation of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Plaintiffs contend that Defendants disseminated false and misleading statements designed to conceal and cover up alleged defects of the ATX tires manufactured by Firestone. The Defendants deny that they did so or are liable in any respect. The Court did not decide which side was right. But both sides agreed to the settlement to resolve the case. The two sides disagree on how much money Class Members could have received had the lawsuit gone to trial.

What Does the Settlement Provide?

Defendants have agreed to pay thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) in cash in settlement of this case. These funds will be distributed to eligible Members of the Class who send in valid claim forms, after payment of court-approved legal fees and Lead Counsel's, Lead Plaintiff's (Patricia Ziemer) and Intervenor Plaintiff's (Iowa Public Employees Retirement System) time and expenses, the costs of claims administration, including the costs of printing and mailing the Notice, the cost of publishing newspaper notice and taxes and tax preparation fees (the "Net Settlement Fund"). The Stipulation of Settlement, available at www.hrsclaimsadministration.com, describes all of the details about the settlement.

Your recovery will depend on the number of Bridgestone publicly traded common stock shares or the quantity of ADRs you purchased, the timing of your purchases, and any sales thereof. It will also depend on the number of valid claim forms that Members of the Class submit and the amount of such claims. Assuming that all of the Bridgestone investors who purchased common stock or ADRs during the relevant period and suffered damages participate in this settlement, Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel estimates that the average distribution per share of Bridgestone common stock will be approximately $0.16 and the estimated average distribution per ADR will be approximately $1.60¹ before the deduction of court-approved fees and expenses which will cost $0.05 per share and $0.50 per ADR if the Court awards the amount requested. Historically, less than all eligible investors submit claims, resulting in higher average distributions per share.

How Do You Ask For A Payment?

To qualify for a payment, you must send in a claim form. A detailed notice and claim form package contains everything you need. Just call 1-800-945-9431 toll free or visit www.hrsclaimsadministration.com to get one. Claim forms are due by February 23, 2009.

What Are Your Other Options?

You can exclude yourself from the settlement. If you do not want a payment from the settlement, but you want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue the Defendants about the claims you would otherwise be releasing in this settlement, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from the settlement. If you stay in the settlement, you may object to it. The detailed Notice explains how to exclude yourself or object.

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing at 9:00 a.m. on January 23, 2009, at the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee, Nashville Division, located at 801 Broadway, Nashville, TN 37203, in Courtroom 874. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate. The Court will also decide whether to approve the Plan of Allocation and the payment of fees, costs and expenses to Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel, including the award to Lead Plaintiff and Intervenor Plaintiff to compensate them for their time and effort in this case. The lawyers representing the Class are: Daniel E. Bacine, Esquire and Jeffrey A. Barrack, Esquire, Barrack Rodos & Bacine, 3300 Two Commerce Square, 2001 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19103; and Jonah H. Goldstein, Esquire, Coughlin Stoia Geller Rudman & Robbins LLP, 655 West Broadway, Suite 1900, San Diego, CA 92101. You may ask
