Pursuant to Local Rule 16.01(d)(2), the following Initial Case Management Plan is adopted:

Jurisdiction and venue are not disputed. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332.

Plaintiff Tennessee Football, Inc., (“Tennessee Football”), entered into an enforceable written contract of employment with Kennedy Pola, a football coach, in which Mr. Pola agreed to be employed by it until February 14, 2011. Mr. Kiffin, in his individual capacity and as agent of USC, in accordance with a pattern and practice, and with full knowledge of Mr. Pola's contract, maliciously induced Mr. Pola to breach it one week before the start of Tennessee Football's season training camp so that he could become employed by USC as its football program's offensive coordinator. Mr. Kiffin's actions were with the full knowledge and approval of USC's athletics department, and violate both Tennessee's statutory and common law prohibition against inducement of breach of contract. Tennessee Football is entitled to compensatory, statutory and/or punitive damages as a result of Defendants' actions.
