

merits of the claims it has asserted. In the TRO Papers Sandton sets forth allegations, which, if proven true, give Sandton a substantial likelihood of succeeding on its claims.

2. It appears that in the absence of a restraining order, Sandton faces the prospect of losing a substantial source of recovery against the Defendants in this case, namely, the Collateral and its proceeds. Such an injury is the kind of irreparable harm contemplated under Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b).

3. It further appears that the harm to Sandton in the absence of a temporary restraining order is greater than any harm that may befall Defendants after the entry of such an order.

4. The public has a strong interest in deterring and preventing willful breaches of contract, such as alleged by Sandton here. An order restraining Defendants and their agents from further dissipating assets not only prevents them from further engaging in such wrongful conduct, but also sends a message to any other person who may be tempted to willfully violate the contract or property rights of another.

5. For all of the foregoing reasons, this Order is well taken and is being granted without notice to the Defendants.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED as follows:

A. The Motion is hereby granted in its entirety.

B. Upon the posting of a bond in the amount of $ 5,000, Defendants, by clark of 1056mm 3/13/13 their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, as well as those persons in active concert or participation with any of them, are restrained from directly or indirectly or in any manner selling, transferring, encumbering, giving away, hiding, secreting, destroying, damaging, dissipating, or in any way diminishing the value of the Collateral or the Policy in the possession of Defendants or wherever located, including but not limited to those items set forth on the list attached hereto.

C. Upon the posting of the aforementioned bond, Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, as well as those persons in active concert or participation with any of them, are restrained from directly or indirectly or in any manner withdrawing and/or dissipating any funds or proceeds derived from the sale, use or lease of the Collateral or the Policy.

This Temporary Restraining Order shall expire ten (10) days from the date of entry absent a further order of the Court. This Court shall conduct a hearing for determination of whether cause exists to ~~grant a preliminary injunction~~ contemner the TRO & JAH. on March 15, 2013, at 3:00 p.m. in Courtroom A-105, 801 Broadway, Nashville, TN 37203.
