INITIAL CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

Pursuant to Local Rule 16.01(d), the following Initial Case Management Order will apply in this case.

A. JURISDICTION

The Court has subject matter jurisdiction of Plaintiff’s claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and jurisdiction of those claims is not disputed.

B. PARTIES’ THEORIES, CLAIMS AND DEFENSES

1. Plaintiff’s Theories and Claims.

Plaintiff suffered harassment, racial discrimination and retaliation while employed by Defendant. Plaintiff’s Caucasian supervisors and co-workers made racial slurs, threatened and harassed him on the job. After Plaintiff complained about this behavior, Defendant did not resolve Plaintiff’s issues and the harassment continued to be an on-going occurrence. The day after Plaintiff reported another incident of threatening behavior towards him by one of his Caucasian supervisors, Defendant retaliated against him and terminated Plaintiff while not terminating the offending supervisor.

2. Defendant's Theories and Defenses.

Defendant denies Plaintiff's material allegations. Plaintiff was not subjected to racial harassment, discrimination or retaliation. Plaintiff was terminated for a legitimate non-discriminatory and non-retaliatory reason when, after he caused a motor vehicle accident at the worksite, he verbally assaulted and threatened a co-worker with bodily harm.

Many, if not all, of Plaintiff's claims are time-barred and exceed the scope of his underlying charge of discrimination.
