ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO WAIVE FILING FEE

Before the Court is Plaintiff Kenneth E. Savage’s Motion to Waive Filing Fee (D.E. # 2) filed on January 26, 2014. Plaintiff filed an amended complaint on February 28, 2014, alleging claims pursuant to the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (“USERRA”). Plaintiff alleges in his amended complaint that he has been a member of the United States Navy Reserve since 1998 and currently holds the rank of lieutenant.¹ Based on this allegation, the Court finds that Plaintiff is a qualified member of the “uniformed services” as defined in the USERRA, 38 U.S.C. § 4303. In the Motion before the Court, Plaintiff seeks waiver of the case initiation fee for bringing this civil action. Pursuant to 38 U.S.C. § 4323(h)(1), “[n]o fees or court costs may be charged or taxed against any person claiming rights under this chapter.”² Several federal courts have construed this provision to require the waiver of initial filing fees in cases where
