

payment method of § 1915(b). See McGore v. Wrigglesworth, 114 F.3d 601, 604 (6th Cir. 1997), partially overruled on other grounds by LaFountain v. Harry, 716 F.3d 944, 951 (6th Cir. 2013). In order to take advantage of the installment procedures, a prisoner plaintiff must submit, along with the notice of appeal, an updated in forma pauperis affidavit and inmate trust account statement. Id. at 610; 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(2).

In this case, although Plaintiff Lee submitted an in forma pauperis affidavit with his notice of appeal, he did not include an updated trust account statement. Therefore, at the present time, he is not eligible to take advantage of the installment procedures of § 1915(b). Lee is, however, liable to the Court for the full $505 appellate filing fee, which accrued at the moment the notice of appeal was filed. Accordingly, Lee is hereby ORDERED to submit, within 30 days after the date of this order, either the full $505 appellate filing fee or an updated trust account statement for the last six months.

If Plaintiff Lee fails to file the required documents in a timely manner, the Court will deny leave to appeal in forma pauperis and assess the entire $505 filing fee from his inmate trust account without regard to the installment procedures, and the Sixth Circuit may dismiss the appeal for failure to prosecute. However, if Lee timely submits the required information and the Court finds that he is still indigent, the Court will grant leave to appeal in forma pauperis and assess the filing fee in accordance with the installment procedures of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b).

The Clerk is directed to notify the Sixth Circuit of the entry of this order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
