IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

BEAUMONT DIVISION

ERIC ARNOLD BLOUNT	S
VS.	S	CIVIL	ACTION	NO.	1:14cv396
STATE OF TEXAS	S

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Plaintiff Eric Arnold Blount filed this lawsuit against the State of Texas. Plaintiff complains he was wrongfully convicted of a criminal offense and seeks monetary damages.<sup>1</sup>

Discussion

The Eleventh Amendment to the Constitution provides that "[t]he judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by Citizens of another State...." The Eleventh Amendment has been construed to prohibit a citizen of a state from bringing an action in federal court against his own state. Pennhurst State School & Hospital v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89, 98-99 (1984); Williams v. Dallas Area Rapid Transit, 242 F.3d 315, 319 (5th Cir. 2001).

Plaintiff is seeking money damages from the State of Texas. The Eleventh Amendment bars him from pursuing such a claim in federal court. As a result, this lawsuit will be dismissed. An appropriate final judgment shall be entered.

SIGNED this 6 day of May, 2015.
