

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
MARSHALL DIVISION

FUNCTION MEDIA, L.L.C., v.

GOOGLE, INC. AND YAHOO!, INC.

Civil Case No. 2:07-CV-279 (CE)

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

GOOGLE INC.'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFF'S PRE-TRIAL DISCLOSURES

Pursuant to Paragraph 6 of the January 24, 2008 Discovery Order, Defendant Google Inc. makes the following responses and objections to Plaintiff's pre-trial disclosures served on October 2, 2009.

I. OBJECTIONS AND COUNTER-DESIGNATIONS TO FUNCTION MEDIA'S DEPOSITION DESIGNATIONS

Pursuant to Rule 32 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Google hereby makes the following objections and counter-designations to Plaintiff Function Media's Designation of Deposition Testimony. Google reserves the right to amend, supplement, or withdraw its objections and counter-designations.

Google hereby objects as follows to the admission into evidence of the following deposition testimony designated by Plaintiff. Google objects generally to the introduction of any deposition testimony without a showing by Plaintiff that the witness whose testimony they seek to introduce is unavailable as required by Federal Rule of Evidence 804 and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 32.

Google also hereby submits its counter-designations, which Google requests be read with Plaintiff's designations for completeness purposes if Plaintiff's designated testimony is admitted into evidence. Accordingly, Google submits these counter-designations conditionally and reserves the right not to introduce any and all counter-designations. If Plaintiff's designations are not admitted, Google intends to withdraw the counter-designations listed below.

Google reserves the right to amend or supplement these counter-designations for any reason, including without limitation in response to Plaintiff's disclosure of trial witnesses, trial exhibits, deposition designations or other required disclosures, and in response to discovery which may yet occur. Furthermore, Google reserves its right to object, or to not object, to the entry into evidence of any deposition exhibit on any basis, notwithstanding any objection or counter-designation below relating to that exhibit.

Because the admissibility of testimony from a witness depends on the context, the inclusion of testimony from a witness on Google's own list of designations is not a waiver and should not be construed as a waiver of the right to object to the testimony or the use of the testimony when offered by Plaintiff. In addition, Google reserves the right to use at trial any testimony on Plaintiff's designations.

For those objections which are identified by an abbreviated code, the code corresponds to an objection as set forth below:

II. OBJECTIONS TO FUNCTION MEDIA'S TRIAL EXHIBITS

Google hereby objects to the admission into evidence of the trial exhibits identified by Function Media in its pre-trial disclosures as indicated on Attachment A hereto. Google reserves its right to object, or to not object, to the entry into evidence of any exhibit on any basis, notwithstanding any objection or non-objection in Attachment A. Google further reserves its right to amend and/or supplement its objections to the extent permitted by this Court's rules.

Because the admissibility of an exhibit is dependent on the context, the inclusion of a trial exhibit in Google's own pre-trial disclosures is not a waiver and should not be construed as a waiver of the right to object to the admission or the use of an exhibit when offered by Plaintiff.
