

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
MARSHALL DIVISION

FUNCTION MEDIA, L.L.C.,

Plaintiff,

vs.

GOOGLE, INC. AND YAHOO, INC.,

Defendants.

§
§
§
§
§
§
§
§
§
§

Civil Action No. 2007-CV-279

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING FUNCTION MEDIA’S UNOPPOSED
MOTION FOR LEAVE TO EXCEED PAGE LIMIT IN ITS SURREPLY TO GOOGLE
INC.’S MOTION TO SEAL DOCUMENTS AND CLOSE THE COURTROOM DURING PRESENTATION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AT TRIAL

Before the Court is Plaintiff Function Media, L.L.C.’s Unopposed Motion for Leave to Exceed Page Limit in Its Surreply to Google Inc.’s Motion to Seal Documents and Close the Courtroom During Presentation of Confidential Information at Trial. After considering the motion, the relief sought therein, and the fact that it is unopposed, the Court ORDERS that for good cause appearing the Motion is hereby GRANTED.