PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the prior rulings of this Court, the Court hereby orders the parties to abide by this Protective Order.

This Protective Order is issued to facilitate document disclosure and production under the Local Rules of this Court and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Unless modified pursuant to the terms contained in this Order, this Order shall remain in effect through the conclusion of this litigation.

In support of this order, the Court finds that:

1. Documents and information containing confidential proprietary and business information and/or trade secrets (“Confidential Information”) are likely to be disclosed or produced during the course of discovery in this litigation;
2. The parties to this litigation may assert that public dissemination and disclosure of Confidential Information could injure or damage the party disclosing or producing the Confidential Information and could place that party at a competitive disadvantage;
3. Counsel for the party or parties receiving Confidential Information may presently be without sufficient information to accept the representation(s) made by the party or parties producing Confidential Information as to the confidential, proprietary, and/or trade secret nature of such Confidential Information; and 4. To protect the respective interests of the parties and to facilitate the progress of disclosure and discovery in this litigation, the following Order should issue.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED THAT:

1. Confidential Information, including documents, deposition testimony, disclosures or discovery responses containing Confidential Information, as well as copies thereof, disclosed or produced by any party in this litigation (or by any third party or non-party) are referred to as “Protected Matters.” Except as otherwise indicated below, all documents, deposition testimony or discovery responses designated by a producing party as “Confidential,” or “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”) and which are disclosed or produced to the attorneys for a party to this litigation are Protected Matters and are entitled to confidential treatment as described below.
2. Protected Matters designated as “Confidential” shall be limited to material that the designating party believes in good faith should be held confidential, including due to its non-public, sensitive or proprietary nature. Protected Matters designated as “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”) shall be limited to material that the designating party believes in good faith is so sensitive, proprietary or otherwise confidential that the disclosure to employees of another party, even under the restricted terms and conditions applicable to material designated “Confidential,” would not provide adequate protection to the interests of the designating party.
3. Protected Matters shall not include (a) advertising materials, (b) materials that on their face show that they have been published to the general public, or (c) documents that have been submitted to any governmental entity without request for confidential treatment.
4. Confidential Information disclosed at (a) the deposition of a party or one of its present or former officers, directors, employees, agents or independent experts retained by counsel for the purpose of this litigation, or (b) the deposition of a third party, may be designated by any party (or by the third party disclosing any such Confidential information) as “Confidential” or “For Counsel Only” (“or Attorney’s Eyes Only”) information by indicating on the record at the deposition that the testimony is “Confidential” or “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”) and is subject to the provisions of this Order. Any party (or third party having disclosed such Confidential Information) may also designate information disclosed at such deposition as “Confidential” or “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”) by notifying all of the parties in writing within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the transcript, of the specific pages and lines of the transcript which should be treated as “Confidential” or “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”) thereafter. Each party shall attach a copy of such written notice or notices to the face of the transcript and each copy thereof in his possession, custody or control. All deposition transcripts shall be treated as “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”) for a period of fifteen (15) days after the receipt of the transcript. To the extent possible, the court reporter shall segregate into separate transcripts information designated as “Confidential” or “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”), with blank, consecutively numbered pages being provided in a nondesignated main transcript. The separate transcript containing “Confidential” and/or “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”) information shall have page numbers that correspond to the blank pages in the main transcript.

5. At any time after the delivery of Protected Matters, counsel for the party or parties receiving the Protected Matters may challenge the Confidential designation of all or any portion thereof by providing written notice thereof to counsel for the party disclosing or producing the Protected Matters. If the parties are unable to agree as to whether the confidential designation of discovery material is appropriate, the party or parties receiving the Protected Matters wishing to contest the designation may file a motion with the Court with regard to any Protected Matters in dispute. Upon the filing of such a motion by the receiving party or parties, the party or parties producing the Protected Matters shall have the burden of establishing that the disputed Protected Matters are entitled to confidential treatment. All Protected Matters are entitled to confidential treatment pursuant to the terms of this Order until and unless the parties formally agree in writing to the contrary or a contrary determination is made by the Court as to whether all or a portion of a Protected Document is entitled to confidential treatment.

6. Information subject to this Protective Order may be used only for the purposes of this litigation. Protected Matters and any information contained therein shall not be used or shown, disseminated, copied, or in any way communicated to anyone for any purpose whatsoever, except as provided for below.
7. Except as provided in paragraph 8 below, Protected Matters and any information contained therein shall be disclosed (and copies may be made to facilitate this disclosure) only to the following persons (“Qualified Persons”):
 - A. Counsel of record in this litigation for the party or parties receiving Protected Matters;
 - B. Employees of such counsel (excluding experts and investigators) assigned to and necessary to assist such counsel in the preparation and trial of this action; and
 - C. The Court;
 - D. Actual or potential independent experts or consultants (including translators) who have signed a document agreeing to be bound by the terms of this protective order (at Exhibit A hereto) and whose identity, as well as all present and prior relationships or affiliations, is provided to the party whose Protected Matters are to be disclosed for purposes of their making a reasonable objection prior to any disclosure of Protected Matters;

- E. Personnel of graphics, litigation support and trial/jury consulting firms engaged by a party or its attorneys in connection with this litigation who have signed Exhibit A hereto prior to any disclosure of Protected Matters, as well as participants in focus groups and mock juries relating to this case, provided that they and their immediate family members are not employed by any of the Parties and that they have signed a confidentiality agreement prior to any disclosure of Protected Matters.
- F. In-house counsel for the party or parties receiving Protected Matters, or in-house counsel for the affiliates, including parent corporations and subsidiaries, of such receiving parties, provided such in-house counsel are not involved in competitive decision-making.
- G. One party representative who shall be designated in writing by the party prior to any disclosure of Protected Matters to such person and who shall sign a document agreeing to be bound by the terms of this protective order (at Exhibit A hereto) prior to any disclosure of Protected Matters.

8. Protected Matters and any information contained therein shall be used solely for the prosecution or defense of this litigation and shall not be used as a basis for filing a new complaint or a new claim for patent infringement against the producing party. "Confidential" information shall not be disclosed or made available by the receiving party to persons other than Qualified Persons. Information designated as ‘For Counsel Only’ (or ‘Attorney’s Eyes Only’) shall be restricted in circulation to Qualified Persons described in Paragraphs 7(A) through (E) above. Information designated as ‘For Counsel Only’ (or ‘Attorney’s Eyes Only’) may also be disclosed to up to 2 in-house counsel for each party as described in paragraph 7(F) above. But in no circumstance will information designated as ‘For Counsel Only’ (or ‘Attorney’s Eyes Only’) be disclosed to David Pridham or to others similarly situated with respect to the business operations of Erich Spangenberg (or entities within his direct or indirect control or influence), irrespective of their capacity under Paragraphs 7(A) through (F).

9. The term ‘copy’ as used herein means any photographic, mechanical or computerized copy or reproduction of any document or thing, of any verbatim transcript, in whole or in part, of such document or thing.
10. If a party objects to the disclosure of Protected Matters to an independent expert described in Paragraph 7(D), above, the objecting party may serve written objections on all parties, identifying with particularity the basis for that objection. Such objections shall not be unreasonably made. Service of the objections shall be made by personal delivery, facsimile, or by overnight delivery, and received within five (5) business days after the date of receipt of the identification of the independent expert. The parties shall meet and confer in good faith to resolve the disagreement. If the parties cannot agree on disclosure of Protected Matters to the proposed independent expert, the objecting party shall have an additional five (5) business days after the meet and confer in which to file a motion for an Order forbidding disclosure to the proposed independent expert. On any such motion, the objecting party shall have the burden of proof. No disclosure of Protected Matters may be made until after the validity of the objection has been resolved, either by negotiation or the Court.

11. To the extent that Protected Matters or information contained therein are used in depositions, at hearings, or at trial, such documents or information shall remain subject to the provisions of this Order, along with the transcript pages of the deposition testimony and/or trial testimony referring to the Protected Matters or information contained therein.
12. Any court reporter or transcriber who reports or transcribes testimony in this action shall agree that all “confidential” information designated as such under this Order shall remain “confidential” and shall not be disclosed by them, except pursuant to the terms of this Order, and that any notes or transcriptions of such testimony (and any accompanying exhibits) will be retained by the reporter or delivered to counsel of record.
13. Inadvertent or unintentional production of documents or information containing Confidential Information which are not designated “confidential” shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of a claim for confidential treatment.
14. The party or parties receiving Protected Matters shall not under any circumstances sell, offer for sale, advertise, or publicize Protected Matters or any information contained therein.
15. After termination of this litigation, the provisions of this Order shall continue to be binding, except with respect to those documents and information that become a matter of public record. This Court retains and shall have continuing jurisdiction over the parties and recipients of the Protected Matters for enforcement of the provisions of this Order following termination of this litigation.
16. Upon final termination of this litigation by dismissal, judgment, or settlement, counsel for the party or parties receiving Protected Matters shall return the Protected Matters and all copies thereof to the counsel for the party or parties disclosing or producing the Protected Matters.

17. This Order shall be binding upon the parties and their attorneys, successors; executors, personal representatives, administrators, heirs, legal representatives, assigns, subsidiaries, divisions, employees, agents, independent contractors, or other persons or organizations over which they have control.
18. This Order shall apply to the parties and any non-party from whom discovery may be sought and who desires the protection of this Order. Thus, any non-party requested or required to produce or disclose information in this proceeding, through subpoena or otherwise, may designate such information pursuant to the terms of this Order.
19. In the event a party wishes to use any “Confidential” or “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”) information in any affidavits, briefs, memoranda of law, or other papers filed in Court in this litigation, such “Confidential” or “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”) information used therein shall be filed under seal with the Court.
20. The Clerk of this Court is directed to maintain under seal all documents and transcripts of deposition testimony and answers to interrogatories, admissions and other pleadings filed under seal with the Court in this litigation which have been designated, in whole or in part as “Confidential” or “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”) information by a party to this action.
21. Nothing in this Order shall preclude any party to this litigation or their attorneys from (1) showing a document prepared prior to the filing of this action and designated as “Confidential” or “For Counsel Only” (or “Attorney’s Eyes Only”) to an individual who appears as an author, addressee or recipient of a copy of the document on the document’s face or (2) disclosing or using, in any manner or for any purpose, any documents from the party's own files or a party's own information which the party itself has designated as "Confidential" or "For Counsel Only" (or "Attorney's Eyes Only").

22. Nothing in this Order shall bar or otherwise restrict any attorney herein from rendering advice to his or her client with respect to this litigation and, in the course thereof, referring to or relying upon his examination of Confidential Information produced by another party or a third-party; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and in otherwise communicating with his client, the attorney shall not make specific disclosure of any item of the Confidential Information.
23. Any discovery documents produced in this litigation may be later designated as "Attorney Client Privilege" or "Attorney Work Product" promptly upon written notice by the producing party that any such privileged or immune document was produced through inadvertence, mistake, or other error, and no waiver of privilege or immunity shall be deemed to have occurred in this or other litigation. Upon such designation, the receiving party promptly shall collect all copies of the documents and return them to the producing party. This provision, however, does not waive the receiving party's right to later contest the assertion of such privilege pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and other applicable law. This paragraph is not intended to limit, but rather to expand upon the protection provided pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5).
24. The Court and parties acknowledge that the law recognizes a common interest privilege and/or joint defense privilege under certain circumstances, and that such privileges may be applicable between these Defendants and Defendants in Related Litigations under certain circumstances. Nothing in this protective order shall be construed as diminishing, or enlarging, the scope of such privileges under the law, or construed that, by agreeing to this protective order, ST Sales agrees that the common interest privilege and/or joint defense privilege are applicable in any specific circumstances.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 21st day of May, 2008.
