David J. Maland, Clerk

U S District Court, Eastern District of Texas

By _____

Deputy Clerk

I was administratively suspended twice for non-payment of inactive bar dues in Texas while I was residing and practicing in another jurisdiction. Both of these errors were a result of inaccurate mail address information. The first was in the nineties when I failed to tell the State Bar about my change in address and did not receive an invoice for the bar dues. The Second time was occurred in the early 2000s and was a result of a error in the Bar records concerning my address where the bar had recorded "Fifth St." instead of "Fifth Ave." As a result I did not receive my bar dues invoice and failed to pay. This was not considered a disciplinary suspension I am currently in good standing in Texas.
