II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

48. This is an action for infringement of two United States patents arising under 35 U.S.C. §§ 271, 281, and 284-285, among others. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction of this action under Title 28 U.S.C. §1331 and §1338(a).

49. The Court has general and specific personal jurisdiction over each Defendant, and venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(b). Each Defendant has substantial contacts with the forum as a result of conducting substantial business within the State of Texas and within this District. Upon information and belief, each Defendant regularly solicits business in the State of Texas and in this District, and derives substantial revenue from products and/or services provided to individuals residing in the State of Texas and in this District. In addition, each Defendant conducts business relating to secure online banking, including online bill pay, with and for customers residing in this District. Specifically, each Defendant provides these services directly to consumers in this District through its own interactive website(s) (e.g. www.colonialbank.com) and/or indirectly to consumers in this District through the provision of products and services to financial institutions who serve consumers in this District. Through the provisions of these products and/or services, each Defendant has committed and continues to commit acts of patent infringement in the State of Texas and in this District.

III. PATENT INFRINGEMENT

50. On August 11, 1998, United States Patent No. 5,793,302 (“the ‘302 patent”) was duly and legally issued for a “Method for Securing Information Relevant to a Transaction.” A true and correct copy of the ‘302 patent is attached hereto as Exhibit “A.” On October 26, 1999, United States Patent No. 5,974,148 (“the ‘148 patent”) was duly and legally issued for a “Method for Securing Information Relevant to a Transaction.” A true and correct copy of the ‘148 patent is attached hereto as Exhibit “B.” (The ‘302 and ‘148 patents are collectively referred to herein as “the patents-in-suit”). Stambler is the inventor and owner of all rights, title, and interest in and to the patents-in-suit and possesses all rights of recovery under them.

51. Defendants have infringed and continue to infringe, directly, contributorily, and/or through the inducement of others, the claimed methods of the patents-in-suit by provision of their respective secure online banking products and/or services, including but not limited to online bill pay and secure funds transfer products and/or services.

52. Stambler has been damaged as a result of Defendants’ infringing conduct. Defendants are, thus, liable to Stambler in an amount that adequately compensates him for their infringements, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

53. Each Defendant’s infringements of Stambler’s rights under the patents-in-suit will continue to damage Stambler, causing irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law, unless enjoined by this Court.

IV. JURY DEMAND

Stambler hereby requests a trial by jury pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

V. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Stambler requests that the Court find in his favor and against Defendants, and that the Court grant Stambler the following relief:

- a. Judgment that one or more claims of United States Patent Nos. 5,793,302 and 5,974,148 have been infringed, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, by one or more Defendants and/or by others to whose infringement Defendants have contributed and/or by others whose infringement has been induced by Defendants;

- b. Judgment that Defendants account for and pay to Stambler all damages to and costs incurred by Stambler because of Defendants' infringing activities and other conduct complained of herein;
- c. That Defendants' infringements be found to be willful from the time that Defendants became aware of the infringing nature of their respective products and services, which is the time of filing of Plaintiff's Original Complaint at the latest, and that the Court award treble damages for the period of such willful infringement pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- d. A grant of a permanent injunction pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283, enjoining the Defendants from further acts of infringement;
- e. That Stambler be granted pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on the damages caused by Defendants' infringing activities and other conduct complained of herein;
- f. That this Court declare this an exceptional case and award Stambler his reasonable attorney's fees and costs in accordance with 35 U.S.C. § 285; and
- g. That Stambler be granted such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper under the circumstances.
