

Exhibit D

Meng Xi

From: Rob Peters <rpeters@intelligize.com>
Sent: Monday, November 17, 2014 10:42 AM
To: Meng Xi
Subject: Re: Research request

Meng:

A party could but they could also challenge those obtained through an FOIA request as well since there is no indication on the copies that they are official SEC filings. The only way you would be able to do this would be to request certified copies of the records from the SEC if you were using them in a litigation case for instance. Otherwise the documents we would obtain or those generated by the SEC will look the same.

Rob

On Mon, Nov 17, 2014 at 1:37 PM, Meng Xi <MXi@susmangodfrey.com> wrote:

Rob,

Quick question: is there any appreciable difference between SEC filings obtained through Intelligize's service and SEC filings obtained directly from the SEC through a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request? In other words, could a party challenge the authenticity of SEC filings obtained through your service?

Please advise, thanks.

Meng

From: Rob Peters [mailto:rpeters@intelligize.com]
Sent: Wednesday, November 05, 2014 12:24 PM
To: Meng Xi
Subject: Re: Research request

Meng:

For the 9 registration statements and prospectuses it would be $1350. Unfortunately there is no expedite option for these since we are sometimes limited to the SEC or their contractor for production of the records. Most of these should be available within 24 hours. Add an additional $2750 for the exhibits.

Regards,

Rob

On Wed, Nov 5, 2014 at 3:07 PM, Meng Xi <MXi@susmangodfrey.com> wrote:

But please also provide estimates (both pricing and turnaround) for exhibits, in addition to the registrations.

From: Meng Xi
Sent: Wednesday, November 05, 2014 12:07 PM
To: 'Rob Peters'
Subject: RE: Research request

Just the registration statements themselves, which I understand to be about 80-100 pages in length.

From: Rob Peters [<mailto:rpeters@intelligize.com>]
Sent: Wednesday, November 05, 2014 12:06 PM
To: Meng Xi
Subject: Re: Research request

Meng:

Were you looking for all exhibits attached to the registrations or just the registrations themselves?

Regards,

Rob

On Wed, Nov 5, 2014 at 2:48 PM, Meng Xi <MXi@susmangodfrey.com> wrote:

Rob,

Monika Miura, our librarian, forwarded your email to me so that I can inquire about the following research requests. Could you kindly provide pricing information (including any expedited options) and estimated turnaround for the following nine SEC filings? I do not need hard copies—electronic would be fine.

1. InfoSeek Corp., S-1 Registration Statement, No. 333-4142, Amendment No. 1, dated May 3, 1996
2. Excite, Inc., SB-2 Registration Statement, No. 333-2328-LA, dated March 11, 1996

3. Excite, Inc., Prospectus, dated April 3, 1996
4. Lycos, Inc., S-1 Registration Statement, dated February 14, 1996
5. Lycos, Inc., Prospectus, No. 333-354, dated April 3, 1996
6. Open Text, F-1 Registration Statement, No. 33-98858, dated November 1, 1995
7. Open Text, Prospectus, dated January 23, 1996
8. Yahoo, Prospectus, No. 333-2142, dated April 12, 1996
9. Yahoo, SB-2 Registration Statement, No. 333-2142, dated March 7, 1996

Thanks for your help.

Meng

Meng Xi | Attorney at Law | SUSMAN GODFREY L.L.P.

1901 Avenue of the Stars, Suite 950, Los Angeles, CA 90067

Tel 310.789.3158 Cell 626.232.9238 mxi@susmangodfrey.com

HOUSTON • DALLAS • LOS ANGELES • SEATTLE • NEW YORK