The documents we have here in-house are documents that we have obtained from the SEC or an SEC source.

Thanks,

Ernessa

Ernessa,

Quick question: is there any appreciable difference between SEC filings obtained through Thomson Reuter's service and SEC filings obtained directly from the SEC through a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request? In other words, could a party challenge the authenticity of SEC filings obtained through your service?

Please advise, thanks.

Meng

Ernessa,

Monika Miura, our librarian, forwarded your email to me so that I can inquire about the following research requests. Could you kindly provide pricing information (including any expedited options) and estimated turnaround for the following nine SEC filings? I do not need hard copies—electronic would be fine.

10. InfoSeek Corp., S-1 Registration Statement, No. 333-4142, Amendment No. 1, dated May 3, 1996
11. Excite, Inc., SB-2 Registration Statement, No. 333-2328-LA, dated March 11, 1996
12. Excite, Inc., Prospectus, dated April 3, 1996
13. Lycos, Inc., S-1 Registration Statement, dated February 14, 1996
14. Lycos, Inc., Prospectus, No. 333-354, dated April 3, 1996
15. Open Text, F-1 Registration Statement, No. 33-98858, dated November 1, 1995
16. Open Text, Prospectus, dated January 23, 1996
17. Yahoo, Prospectus, No. 333-2142, dated April 12, 1996
18. Yahoo, SB-2 Registration Statement, No. 333-2142, dated March 7, 1996

Thanks for your help.

Meng
