The proposed deadlines for the Docket Control Order as well as the disclosure rules and discovery in patent case, set forth in the attached Appendix A, shall be discussed at the Scheduling Conference. The Court will not modify the trial date except for good cause shown.

General Discovery Order

After a review of the pleaded claims and defenses in this action and in furtherance of the management of the Court's docket under FED. R. CIV. P. 16, it is ordered as follows:

- 1. Protective Orders: Upon the request of any party, the Court shall enter a Protective Order, which is agreed to by all parties. If the parties are unable to come to agreement, they shall submit competing motions detailing specific areas of both agreement and disagreement as well as a proposed order. Any party may oppose the issuance of or move to modify the terms of the Protective Order for good cause.
- 2. Discovery Limitations: At the Scheduling Conference, the Court shall also discuss limiting discovery in this action to the disclosures provided for in the Proposed Docket Control Order together with 30 interrogatories per side, 100 requests for admissions per side, 100 hours for depositions of fact witnesses per side (The deposition of each witness shall be limited to a maximum of seven (7) hours, which may be increased by no more than one (1) hour upon agreement of the parties. However, each 30(b)(6) witness may be deposed for a maximum of ten (10) hours), the deposition of all expert witnesses shall be limited to a maximum of ten (10) hours per a witness. "Side" means a party or a group of parties with a common interest. Any party may move to modify these limitations for good cause. All deposition to be read into evidence or shown in court as part of the parties' case-in-chief shall be EDITED so as to exclude all unnecessary, repetitious, and irrelevant testimony; ONLY those portions which are relevant to the issues in controversy shall be read into evidence or shown in open court. Parties SHALL limit total deposition time to no more than one hour per deposition to be read or shown in court.

3. Privileged Information: There is no duty to disclose privileged documents or information. Once the parties have exchanged privilege logs, any party may move the Court for an order compelling the production of any documents or information identified on any other party's privilege log. If the parties have no disputes concerning the privileged documents or information, then the parties shall inform the Court of that fact.
4. Duty to Supplement: After disclosure is made pursuant to the Court's Docket Control Order, each party is under a duty to supplement or correct its disclosures immediately if the party obtains information on the basis of which it knows the information disclosed was either incomplete or incorrect when made, or is no longer complete or true.
5. Disputes: Counsel are directed to contact the chambers of the undersigned for any "hotline" disputes before contacting the Discovery Hotline provided by Local Rule CV-26(f). If the undersigned is not available, the parties shall proceed in accordance with Local Rule CV-26(f).

Other General Rules

1. No Excuses: A party is not excused from the requirements of this Discovery Order or the Court's Docket Control Order because it has not fully completed its investigation of the case, or because it challenges the sufficiency of another party's disclosures, or because another party has not made its disclosures. Absent Court order to the contrary, a party is not excused from disclosure because there are pending motions to dismiss, to remand, or to change venue.

2. Local Rule CV-7(d): The parties are directed to Local Rule CV-7(d) which provides, in part, that “[i]n the event a party fails to oppose a motion in the manner prescribed herein, the court will assume that the party has no opposition.” Local Rule CV-7(e) provides that a party opposing a motion has 15 days in which to serve and file supporting documents and briefs, after which the Court will consider the submitted motion for decision.
3. The Court will refuse to entertain any discovery motion filed after the date of this Order unless the movant advises the Court within the body of the motion that counsel for the parties have first met and conferred in person, with local counsel present, in a good faith effort to resolve the matter. This provision applies only to discovery matters and requires only that counsel from those parties that are in disagreement to meet in person. Lastly, this meet and confer provisions only requires the presence of such counsel having authority to resolve the matter in dispute. The following excuse will not warrant a continuance nor justify a failure to comply with the discovery deadline: The fact that one or more of the attorneys is set for trial in another court on the same day, unless the other setting was made prior to the date of this order or was made as a special provision for the parties in the other case.
4. The parties shall make a good faith effort to adhere to page limits provide by the Local Rules and shall not exceed such page limits without first receiving leave of court upon a showing of good cause. Any effort to avoid these page limits, e.g. submitting each issue raised on summary judgment in a separate motion, shall be closely scrutinized.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SIGNED this 11th day of March, 2008.
