DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on July 14, 2004 has been entered.

Response to Amendment

2. The amendment filed on July 14, 2004 under 37 CFR 1.114 is sufficient to overcome the Cohen et al (4,750,119) and Hilt et al (5,465,206) references, but raises issues of obvious double patenting over the parent application. In response to an telephonic interview on October 13, 2004, the Applicant has filed a Terminal Disclaimer to overcome this issue.

Examiner's Amendment

3. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Application/Control Number: 09/356,711
Art Unit: 3622

Page 3

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David M. Klein on October 13, 2004 and March 17, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In Claim 38, line 9, in the phrase "receiving a portion of the obligation forwarded...", change the word "obligation" to read "payment".

In Claim 47, line 9 is changed to:

means for forwarding a portion of the payment to the third party to reduce the obligation.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 38-56 are allowed.

Examiner's Statement of Reasons For Allowance

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While prior art was found which discloses using a portion of a payment for a transaction at a merchant to purchase an insurance policy for the customer (Cohen et al., 4,750,119) or to make a contribution to a charity selected by the customer (Hovakimian, 5,466,919), according to the Decision rendered by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences on the parent application on October 30, 2002, the prior art does not render it obvious to use the portion of the transaction payment to benefit the merchant instead of the customer. Therefore, the non-obvious novelty of the invention is using the portion of the transaction payment as a remittance towards payment of an obligation owed by the merchant as claimed in independent Claims 38 and 47.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Substance of interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: The Examiner explained how the last line of the claim could be interpreted as the bank processing a check written by the merchant at some time later than the transaction and suggested language to clarify that a portion of the transaction was being forwarded to the third party to reduce the obligation. The Applicant Representative agreed to allow an Examiner's Amendment be entered to incorporate such language in the claim.

(A fuller description, if necessary, and a copy of the amendments which the examiner agreed would render the claims allowable, if available, must be attached. Also, where no copy of the amendments that would render the claims allowable is available, a summary thereof must be attached.)

Continuation Sheet (PTOL-413)

Application No. 09/356,711

Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: The Examiner noted that the amendment of July 14, 2004, canceled all pending claims and entered Claims 38-56 which were, as indicated in the amendment, almost exact duplicates of the allowed claims in the parent application, and further noted that this raised issues of obvious double patenting. The Examiner also noted that there seemed to be a typographical error in Claim 38, line 9, which reads "receiving a portion of the obligation forwarded...". The Examiner believes this should read "receiving a portion of the payment forwarded...". The Applicant agreed and authorized an Examiner's Amendment be made to correct this error. The Applicant also indicated that a Terminal Disclaimer would be filed to overcome the obvious double patenting issue..
