

DECLARATION OF DAVID MALAND

My name is David Maland. I am the United States District Clerk for the Eastern District of Texas. I have received two subpoenas for my testimony at the trial of Albritton v. Cisco, et al., Case No. 6:08cv89, In the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Tyler Division (the "Albritton Case").

The following individuals are deputy United States District Clerks for the Eastern District of Texas, and are full-time employees of that office: Shelley Moore, Cynthia Paar, Rhonda Lafitte, David Provines, Peggy Thompson, Faye Thompson, and Rachel Wilson. Each of these individuals were subpoenaed for and provided videotaped deposition testimony in the Albritton Case on November 3, 2008. I also was subpoenaed for and provided videotaped deposition testimony in the Albritton Case on November 3, 2008.

The above deputy district clerks are assigned to the following offices within the Eastern District of Texas, and reside near these offices:

Deputy Clerk/Witness Name	Location of Clerk's Office Employed
Shelley Moore	Texarkana, Texas
Cynthia Paar	Tyler, Texas
Rhonda Lafitte	Texarkana, Texas
David Provines (Chief Deputy Clerk)	Tyler, Texas
Peggy Thompson	Tyler, Texas
Faye Thompson	Plano, Texas
Rachel Wilson	Tyler, Texas

The expenses for travel incurred by the Clerk's office for employees Moore, Lafitte, and Faye Thompson are as follows:

- Shelley Moore: Hotel expense: $75.78; Meal expense: $11.60; Mileage expense: $163.60
- Rhonda Lafitte: Mileage expense: $117.00; Meal expense: $10.73
- Faye N. Thompson: Mileage expense: $154.44; Meal expense: $19.00

By statute these employees are not permitted to accept witness fees and travel expenses when they are subpoenaed and authorized to testify. These expenses were paid by the District Clerk's office out of federal government funds.

Each of the above-listed deputy clerks and I were required to attend depositions in the Tyler, Texas United States Courthouse on November 3, 2008. These depositions were videotaped and were attended by James Holmes (counsel for Albritton in the Albritton Case), George McWilliams (counsel for Defendant Frenkel in the Albritton Case), and Charles Babcock and Crystal Parker (both counsel for Cisco Systems, Inc. in the Albritton Case).

I verify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and correct.

Executed on February 25, 2009.
