Zilka-Kotab, PC (formerly 'Silicon Valley IP Group') is a law firm that specializes in intellectual property law issues and provides full service in patent and trademark matters.

Zilka-Kotab differentiates itself from other intellectual property service providers by specializing in patenting leading edge electronics, computer-related hardware and software technology, as well as advanced inventions in the mechanical and chemical arts. Moreover, Zilka-Kotab goes beyond ordinary intellectual property procurement by fusing it with an important factor, your business.

Using industry-wide best practices, Zilka-Kotab is capable of increasing the value of your intellectual property by setting the stage for its meaningful exploitation with a specific focus on meeting or exceeding your business objectives.
