Importance: High

I just spoke with John O'Banion. He told me that Teague contacted him at 11:01 AM to let him know that all the depositions are off calendar. As a result, O'Banion has already sent the deponents and the McKool attorneys home. He also indicated that we should reserve the subpoena for the UC because Apple was the one who served it in the case.

John and Steve:

Our understanding is that you have been informed by Eolas, but just in case and to avoid ambiguities: Apple is taking the Rajdev, Baker, Rzeszutko, and Tucker depositions off calendar. Please confirm receipt of this notification. Thanks.

We expect that other defendants in the matter will want to go forward with these depositions. I will provide your contact information to them and have them contact you directly for scheduling purposes.

Thanks,
Teague
