RE: Eolas Technologies Incorporated v. Adobe Systems, Inc., et al.; Civil Action
No. 6:09-CV-446-LED; United States District Court of Texas; Eastern District.
Google Browser and YouTube Player for Android 3.0 Operating System

Dear Chris:

Please see the attached infringement charts for Google Browser and YouTube Player for Android 3.0 Operating System. As far as we have been able to determine, Google released Android 3.0 on February 22, 2011, and certainly did so after the date of Eolas' initial infringement contentions. Accordingly we have produced the attached infringement charts for Google Browser and YouTube Player for Android 3.0 Operating System and provided them to you as quickly as possible.

We intend to move the Court for leave to supplement our infringement contentions to include the Google Browser and YouTube Player for Android 3.0 Operating System charts attached hereto. Please let us know at your earliest convenience if you oppose, and, if so, on what basis.

Sincerely,

Matt Rappaport
