Additionally, the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to supplement their expert reports within a reasonable time after the Court issues a claim construction order, to the extent necessitated by that order, and/or for good cause in light of discovery received subsequent to the deadline for the applicable expert report.

Additionally, the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to depose expert witnesses within a reasonable time about their expert reports, notwithstanding the close of discovery on August 12, 2011.
