

Exhibit 3

LR Gen 106 REFERRALS TO AND FROM OTHER DISTRICTS

When a judge of another district is designated to hear a case or other matter because all of the judges in this District have recused themselves, or when a judge of this District is designated to preside over a case filed in another district, the following procedures shall apply:

- (a) Jurisdiction and Rules. The originating court shall retain jurisdiction over the case, and the Local Rules of the originating court shall govern the case unless otherwise ordered by the judge who is presiding by designation. Any final judgment shall be entered by the originating court.
- (b) Filing of Documents. Documents shall be filed with the clerk of the originating court.
- (c) Trials and Other Proceedings. Conferences and hearings may be held in either district. Jury trials shall be held in the district where the case originates unless all parties agree otherwise.

Effective 1/5/09: § (c) deleted and § (d) re-designated as (c). Effective 3/17/08: § (b) amended.

CROSS-REFERENCE

See also LR Gen 105 (Assignment of Cases).