

Even if Sutherland were acting under color of state law, the Magistrate Judge stated that a random and unauthorized deprivation of property did not result in a violation of procedural due process if the state provides an adequate post-deprivation remedy. Alexander v. Ieyoub, 62 F.3d 709, 712 (5th Cir. 1995). The Texas state courts provide an adequate post-deprivation remedy through the tort of conversion. Murphy v. Collins, 26 F.3d 541, 543 (5th Cir. 1994). The Magistrate Judge therefore recommended that the lawsuit be dismissed as frivolous and for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

Davis received a copy of the Magistrate Judge's Report but filed no objections thereto; accordingly, he is barred from de novo review by the District Judge of those findings, conclusions, and recommendations and, except upon grounds of plain error, from appellate review of the unobjected-to factual findings and legal conclusions accepted and adopted by the District Court. Douglass v. United Services Automobile Association, 79 F.3d 1415, 1430 (5th Cir. 1996) (en banc).

The Court has reviewed the pleadings in this cause and the Report of the Magistrate Judge. Upon such review, the Court has determined that the Report of the Magistrate Judge is correct. See United States v. Wilson, 864 F.2d 1219, 1221 (5th Cir.), cert. denied, 492 U.S. 918, 109 S.Ct. 3243 (1989) (where no objections to a Magistrate Judge's Report are filed, the standard of review is "clearly erroneous, abuse of discretion and contrary to law.") It is accordingly

ORDERED that the Report of the Magistrate Judge (docket no. 6) is ADOPTED as the opinion of the District Court. It is further

ORDERED that the above-styled civil action is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE as frivolous and for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. This dismissal is without prejudice to the Plaintiff's right to seek such relief as he may be entitled in the courts of the State of Texas. It is further ORDERED that any and all motions which may be pending in this civil action are hereby DENIED.

So Ordered and Signed
