

Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP

200 Crescent Court, Suite 300
Dallas, TX 75201-6950
+1 214 746 7700 tel
+1 214 746 7777 fax

Yolanda Cornejo Garcia
1 214 746 8134
yolanda.garcia@weil.com

January 19, 2012

The Honorable Terry R. Means
501 W. 10th Street
Room 201
Fort Worth, TX 76102-3673

Re: American Airlines, Inc. (“American”) v. Travelport Ltd., et al., Case 4:11-cv-00244-Y (N.D. Tex.)

Dear Judge Means:

Pursuant to the Court’s Order regarding Plaintiff’s Motion to Compel dated January 5, 2012 (the “Order”), American respectfully notifies the Court regarding the status of its discovery dispute with Orbitz Worldwide, LLC (“Orbitz”) as described in its Motion to Compel Orbitz to Produce documents filed on December 29, 2011 [Dkt. No. 176] (the “Motion”). (See Order [Dkt. No. 178] at 2.)

Counsel for Orbitz and American have conferred and made a good-faith effort to resolve the discovery dispute between themselves. As a result of those discussions, American has agreed to review the documents that Orbitz has agreed to produce and American and Orbitz will continue to work together with respect to American’s outstanding discovery requests to Orbitz. As a result, American hereby withdraws its Motion without prejudice as it has been rendered moot.

Respectfully submitted,

/s Yolanda Cornejo Garcia

cc: Counsel of Record (via ECF)