American Airlines and Expedia Reach Distribution Agreement

American Airlines Fares and Schedules to Return to Expedia and Hotwire with New Ticket Distribution Agreement

FORT WORTH, Texas and BELLEVUE, Wash., April 4, 2011 /PRNewswire/ – American Airlines, a wholly owned subsidiary of AMR Corporation, and Expedia, Inc. announced today a memorandum of understanding (MOU) that will allow the companies to resume doing business together, effective immediately. Access to fares and schedule information of American Airlines and its subsidiary American Eagle has been restored for search and ticketing on Expedia and Hotwire sites worldwide initially via global distribution system (GDS) technology.

Expedia said it plans to access American's fares, schedules, and customized travel products and services via American's direct connect link by using aggregation technology provided by a GDS. Expedia is committed to working with airlines, GDS and other technology partners to ensure continued innovation within the Expedia marketplace.

Additional terms were not disclosed.

About American Airlines

American Airlines, American Eagle and AmericanConnection® serve 250 cities in 50 countries with, on average, more than 3,900 daily flights. The combined network fleet numbers more than 900 aircraft.
