FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
WICHITA FALLS DIVISION

JONATHAN SHAWN GOOSBY.	§
(TDCJ No. 1307836)	§
V.	§	CIVIL ACTION NO. 7:13-CV-123-O
	§
LINDA ROBERTSON, et al.	§

OPINION and ORDER OF DISMISSAL UNDER 28 U.S.C. §§
1915A(B) and UNDER 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2)(B)

This case is before the Court for review of pro-se inmate and plaintiff Jonathan Shawn Goosby’s case under the screening provisions of 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915A and 1915(e)(2)(B). Goosby, an inmate at the Texas Department of Criminal Justice’s Polunsky Unit, filed a form civil-rights complaint seeking relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.¹ Goosby names as defendants several persons associated with the North Texas State Hospital (NTSH), including Linda Robertson, caseworker; Curtistene Dickerson, caseworker; Kirby Turner, M.D., assessing clinician; Amanda Robertson, social worker; and Camila Anita Losoya, staff member. Complaint, ECF No. 3, at 1,3. Goosby complains of events that took place while he was housed in the NTSH in 2004-2005 pending a competency determination. Id. at 5 § V. Goosby alleges that defendant Turner failed to provide him adequate medical care; that defendant Losoya subjected him to sexual exploitation; and that the remaining defendants, even though notified of the alleged sexual exploitation, failed to report the allegations or assist Goosby. Id. at 3 § IV(B). Goosby has also filed a motion for leave to file an amended complaint, which will be granted to the extent the Court also considers the additional allegations in the “proposed amended complaint” attached to the motion. Goosby seeks only compensatory monetary damages, including “5 million dollars” each from defendants Turner and Losoya, and “2 million dollars” each from the other defendants. Id. at 4 § VI.

¹“Every person who, under color of [state law] . . . subjects, or causes to be subjected, any citizen of the United States or other person within the jurisdiction thereof to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and laws, shall be liable to the party injured in an action at law, suit in equity, or other proper proceeding for redress.” 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983 (West 2012).

A complaint filed in forma pauperis that lacks an arguable basis in law should be dismissed under 28 U.S.C. § 1915.² Under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B), a district court retains broad discretion in determining at any time whether an in-forma-pauperis claim should be dismissed. See 28 U.S.C.A. § 1915(e)(2) (West 2006); see Adepegba v. Hammons, 103 F.3d 383, 388 (5th Cir. 1996). Furthermore, as a part of the PLRA, Congress enacted 28 U.S.C. § 1915A, which requires the Court to review a complaint from a prisoner seeking relief from a governmental entity or governmental officer or employee as soon as possible after docketing. See 28 U.S.C.A. § 1915A(a)(West 2006). Consistent with § 1915A is prior case law recognizing that a district court is not required to await a responsive pleading to conduct its § 1915 inquiry. See Schulte v. Wood, 47 F.3d 1427, 1434 (5th Cir. 1995). Rather, § 1915 gives judges the power to “dismiss a claim based on an indisputably meritless legal theory.” Id. (citing Neitzke, 490 U.S. at 327.) After review of the complaint under these standards, the Court concludes that Goosby’s claims must be dismissed.

After review and screening of the complaint and supporting exhibits, all of Goosby’s claims must be dismissed as barred by the statute of limitations. The Supreme Court has held that all § 1983 actions are governed by the statute of limitations for personal-injury actions for the state of suit. See Wilson v. Garcia, 471 U.S. 261, 273-76 (1985) (holding that state statute of limitations period for personal-injury actions applies to all claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983). In Texas, the applicable limitations period is two years. See Moore v. McDonald, 30 F.3d 616, 620 (5th Cir. 1994)(noting that district courts in Texas must use Texas's general two-year, personal-injury limitations period); see Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code 16.003(a)(West Supp. 2013) (Texas's two-year, personal-injury limitations statute). A district court may dismiss claims sua sponte under § 1915 where it is clear from a review of the complaint that the alleged claims are barred by the applicable statute of limitations. See Harris v. Hegmann, 198 F.3d 153, 156 (5th Cir. 1999); see also Moore, 30 F.3d at 620 (citing Gartrell V. Gaylor, 981 F.2d 254, 256 (5th Cir.1993)).

²*Neitzke v. Williams*, 490 U.S. 319, 328 (1989). Section 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e) requires dismissal not only when an allegation of poverty is untrue or the action is frivolous or malicious, but also when “the action . . . fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted; or seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief.” 28 U.S.C.A. § 1915(e)(2)(A) and (B) (West 2006).

Accrual of a claim under § 1983 is determined by federal law, under which a claim generally accrues when a plaintiff knows or has reason to know of the injury giving rise to the cause of action. See Harris, 198 F.3d at 157 (citing Jackson v. Johnson, 950 F.2d 263, 265 (5th Cir. 1992) and Burrell v. Newsome, 883 F.2d 416, 418 (5th Cir. 1989)). Plaintiff recites allegations arising from the time period in 2004 through 2005 when he was housed in the NTSH. He acknowledges arrival there in December 22, 2004, and all of his allegations involve events that allegedly took place between that date and March 2005, when he was deemed restored to competency. Complaint, attachment pages, ECF No. 3, at 10-15; Exhibit, ECF 3-1, at 18. Goosby acknowledges that he signed a release in December 2012 and paid for copies of his records from the NTSH, which he has attached as exhibits to his complaint. Exhibits, ECF 3-1, at 37. Although December 27, 2012 is the date Goosby purchased the records, the records are for medical, clinical, and assessment reports generated from 2004-2005, while Goosby was housed in the NTSH. Exhibits 3-1, at 39-91. In the "proposed amended complaint" pages, Goosby adds additional causes of action, but he does not list any dates other than as listed in the complaint. Furthermore, staff telephone contact with the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Offender Information Office, confirms that Jonathan Shawn Goosby, TDCJ number 1307836, has been housed in the TDCJ-Correctional Institutions division since July 6, 2005, and has not been in the North Texas State Hospital during that time.

Upon review of the allegations in this complaint, the Court sees no basis to believe that Goosby did not know or have reason to know of the events giving rise to his claims in 2005, when he was discharged from the NTSB. As this suit was filed in 2013, his claims are filed too late. The applicable two-year statute of limitations already had expired prior to the time Goosby filed suit. As all claims are barred by the applicable statutes of limitations, they must be dismissed under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915A(b)(1) and 1915(e)(2)(b)(i) and (ii).

ORDER

It is therefore ORDERED that the motion for leave to file an amended complaint, ECF No.8, is GRANTED to the extent the “proposed amended complaint” attached thereto has been reviewed and screened along with the complaint.

It is further ORDERED that all claims in this case are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(b)(1) and 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i) and (ii).

SO ORDERED this 22nd day of April, 2014.
