CIVIL ACTION NO. 4:11-CV-00964

ORDER APPOINTING RECEIVER

Pending before the Court is the Verified Application for the Appointment of a Receiver (Dkt. No. 23, the “Application”) filed by Plaintiff Compass Bank, successor in interest to Texas State Bank (“Plaintiff”). After considering the Application, the Response to the Application (Dkt. No. 32) filed by Defendants Sunbelt Multimedia Co. (“Sunbelt”), Multimedia Associates, Ltd. (“Multimedia”), KTLM TV, INC. (“KTLM”), Gutierrez Oil Company (“Gutierrez”), Sam F. Vale (“Vale”) and Advertising Executives, LLC (“AdEx”) (collectively, “Defendants”), the Stipulation (Dkt. No. 39) related to the Application entered into by Plaintiff and Defendants, Plaintiff’s Reply in Support of the Application (Dkt. No. 40), the arguments of counsel, the applicable law, and the competent evidence, the Court makes the following findings and issues the following orders.

The Court FINDS as follows:

1. Plaintiff is owed at least $13,785,074.91 as of August 31, 2012, on loans made to and/or guaranteed by Defendants (the “Indebtedness”);
2. Sunbelt leased certain office space in McAllen, Texas, from Plaintiff (the “Lease”). The Lease, as amended, expired on November 30, 2009. Plaintiff is owed at least $250,000 in past due rent as of September 1, 2012. In 2012, Defendants Sunbelt,

Vale, KTLM, Multimedia, and AdEx – the parties obligated by contract or guaranty to pay the sums due under the Lease – have failed to pay rent for at least the months of February, March, April, May, August, and September;

3. Plaintiff has a valid and perfected security interest on all personal property of the Defendants, with priority over the claims of any other party to secure repayment of the Indebtedness;
4. Plaintiff has a first lien deed of trust on the real property owned by Multimedia to secure payment of the Indebtedness;
5. Defendants are subject to the claims of other creditors. Lone Star National Bank claims that Defendants owe in excess of $4 million by the Defendants;
6. Defendants Sunbelt, Multimedia, KTLM, Vale, and AdEx participate in the operation of a television station broadcasting from McAllen, Texas (the “Station”). Sunbelt is the operating company that holds the television broadcast license with the Federal Communications Commission; Multimedia owns personal and real property; KTLM is a broadcast operating entity that is named after the call sign of the Station; AdEx collects most or all of advertising revenue received from the Station and pays many of the individuals employed by Defendants; and Vale is an individual who owns and controls Defendants and other related and unrelated entities;
7. The total value of the collateral of Plaintiff is significantly less than the amount owed to Plaintiff, and the proposed Receivership Property (as defined below) is in a seriously unsound financial condition;
8. Despite their failure to satisfy the Indebtedness to Plaintiff, the Defendants have continued to make interest payments on the indebtedness owed by Defendants to Lone Star Bank from October 2008 to June 2012;
9. AdEx paid Vale approximately $100,000 in compensation in 2011;
10. Plaintiff and Defendants are parties to a Forbearance Agreement dated December 23, 2008, a Second Forbearance Agreement dated November 7, 2011, and a mediation agreement dated May 24, 2012. Defendants breached their obligations under each of these agreements, including obligations to make certain payments to Plaintiff and to sell the Station or the notes associated with the Indebtedness;
11. Defendants have acknowledged in the sworn Second Forbearance Agreement that they are in default of their obligations under the Indebtedness and have no defenses to Plaintiff’s claims associated with the Indebtedness;
12. Plaintiff has demonstrated a high likelihood of success on the merits with respect to its claims against Defendants;
13. The Defendants have attempted to sell the Station since 2008 but have failed to do so. A sale of the Station is inevitable and an immediate sale under the supervision of a qualified receiver is in the best interest of Plaintiff, Defendants, and all other interested persons;

14. A receivership is the most effective and only practical remedy under the circumstances. Based on the testimony of W. Lawrence Patrick and Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") requirements applicable to the Station, the Court finds that the lengthy process associated with FCC approval of traditional changes in ownership or control renders the Plaintiff's traditional legal remedy of foreclosure on its collateral impractical and would likely result in an interruption of Station operations. See, e.g., 47 U.S.C. § 214(a); 47 C.F.R. § 63.03-63.04. By contrast, federal law expressly contemplates transfer of control of a FCC-regulated broadcaster to a receiver. 47 C.F.R. § 73.3541; FCC Form 316. Appointing a receiver will likely prevent an interruption in Station operations and protect the viewing public's interest in continued access to the Station's news and other broadcasts. Thus, the appointment of a receiver will likely do more good than harm;
15. A receivership is necessary to conserve the Receivership Property;
16. The legitimate rights of the Defendants and other interested persons will be protected by the appointment of a receiver;
17. Defendants granted Plaintiff the right to enforce any legal and equitable remedies associated with its collateral pursuant to the security agreements executed by Defendants in connection with the Indebtedness, and Sunbelt agreed to execute any documents necessary to transfer its FCC license in connection with a transfer of ownership of the Station;
18. Plaintiff's proposed receivership is for the lawful and legitimate purpose of maintaining the uninterrupted operation of the Station, conducting a Court-supervised sale of the Station, overseeing a transition in ownership, and accomplishing other objectives permitted under the terms of the loan documents associated with the Indebtedness and attached to the Verified Complaint and Application;
19. The proposed receiver, W. Lawrence Patrick, is an experienced radio and television station operator who has served as a receiver for more than forty stations and whose experience includes resolving distressed station situations and taking control of stations, managing them for months or years, and liquidating those stations to satisfy creditors; and
20. W. Lawrence Patrick is well qualified to serve as a receiver over the Station and the other Receivership Property.

Accordingly, subject to the restrictions set forth below, the Court FINDS the Application should be and is hereby GRANTED.

Pursuant to federal law and federal equitable principles and powers of a United States District Court and the terms notes and security instruments related to Defendants' Indebtedness, the Court ORDERS as follows:

4.6. Any and all funds paid by and/or advanced by Plaintiff to the Receiver pursuant to this Order shall: (a) be deemed made pursuant to contract; (b) be added to the amount of the indebtedness owed by Defendants to Plaintiff; (c) be deemed secured by the liens and security interests in favor of Plaintiff under the loan documents on the Receivership Property to the same extent and with the same priority as other indebtedness secured by all existing liens and security interests under the loan documents in favor of Plaintiff; and (d) accrue interest at the interest rate provided under the loan documents in favor of Plaintiff. All such funds advanced, including interest on advances, shall be deemed a prior lien before the repayment of any and all other claims against the Receivership Property (except for taxes and assessments having first priority as a matter of law) or proceeds of either of them.

5. Receivership Property and Income

5.1. Income shall be applied as follows (but subject to lien rights granted to Plaintiff):

(a) To the Receiver's approved fees and expenses;

(b) To the current post-Receivership operating expenses, including any on-site employee payroll expenses, any Property taxes and any other taxes stemming from the operations of the Station and use in normal business operations incurred during the Receivership to the extent set forth in the Approved Budget. The Receiver shall not make disbursements other than permitted under the Approved Budget except for:

(i) life-threatening or other health or safety issues;

- (ii) variations on individual line items not exceeding 10% so long as expenses in the aggregate are within 5% of the Approved Budget on a monthly basis, or;
 - (iii) upon Approval;
- (c) To the loan balance due Plaintiff until paid in full; and
- (d) Any surplus to be held pending further order of the Court.

5.2. The Receiver shall make interim distributions of Income to Plaintiff after payment of current operating expenses, if the Receiver's "cash on hand" exceeds $50,000.00, unless otherwise agreed in writing by Plaintiff.

6. Receiver's Compensation, Reports and Accounting

6.1. The Receiver's compensation shall be as follows:

6.2. The Receiver's compensation shall be paid (i) first from the Income from the Receivership Property and (2) next by the Plaintiff, but only to the extent that the Income is insufficient to pay the Receiver's compensation.

6.3. Nothing in this Order shall require the Receiver to advance funds other than from Income without a bond or security for payment satisfactory to the Receiver.

6.4. Within thirty (30) days after obtaining possession of the Receivership Property, the Receiver shall submit to the Court, a list of all the personal property, whether tangible or intangible of which it has taken possession.

6.5. By the twentieth (20th) day of each calendar month, the Receiver shall prepare, a financial report (including, without limitation, an income and expense statement, balance sheet and a cash flow analysis) on a monthly basis pertaining to the operations of the Receivership Property during the immediately preceding month. The Receiver shall further prepare a proposed operating budget and capital budget for 2012 through the time of sale for the Receivership Property (the "Budget") within forty-five (45) days of the Effective Date (collectively, the "Receiver's Reports").

6.6. The Budget will be reviewed by the Plaintiff and be subject to Approval. The Budget as approved shall be the "Approved Budget."

6.7. The Receiver shall file with the Clerk of Court such interim reports as may be required by the Court after due notice and opportunity for hearing.

6.8. The Receiver shall furnish to the parties' counsel any additional information regarding the Receivership Property as required by law and as may be reasonably requested by them, but the Receiver is authorized to request instructions from this Court should any party request information on documents which are unduly burdensome or expensive to produce, or to annoy or harass or for any other improper purpose.

6.9. The Receiver shall furnish the Receiver's Report to the following:
