ORDER ADOPTING RECOMMENDATION OF THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Pending is the Government's Motion to Dismiss (Document No. 103) Dewayne Martin's 28 U.S.C. § 2255 Motion to Vacate, Set Aside or Correct Sentence (Document No. 96). The Court has received from the Magistrate Judge a Memorandum and Recommendation recommending that the Government's Motion to Dismiss be GRANTED, and that Martin's Motion to Vacate, Set Aside or Correct Sentence be DENIED and DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE. Martin has filed a "Memorandum in Support and Request to Reconsider and Grant Motion § 2255 to Vacate, Set Aside or Correct Sentence" (Document No. 113), which filing is construed as Martin's objections to the Memorandum and Recommendation. The Court, after having made a de novo determination of the Government's Motion to Dismiss, the Magistrate Judge's Memorandum and Recommendation, and Martin's objections thereto, is of the opinion that the findings and recommendations of the Magistrate Judge should be and hereby are accepted by the Court. Therefore,

It is ORDERED and ADJUDGED for the reasons set forth in the Memorandum and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge filed on March 31, 2017, which is adopted in its entirety as the opinion of the Court, that the Government's Motion to Dismiss Document No. 103) is GRANTED, and Movant Martin's § 2255 Motion to Vacate, Set Aside or Correct Sentence (Document No. 96) is DENIED and DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE. It is further ORDERED that a certificate of appealability is DENIED. A certificate of appealability from a habeas corpus proceeding will not issue unless the petitioner makes "a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right." 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2). This standard "includes showing that reasonable jurists could debate whether (or, for that matter, agree that) the petition should have been resolved in a different manner or that the issues presented were adequate to deserve encouragement to proceed further." Slack v. McDaniel, 120 S. Ct. 1595, 1603-1604 (2000) (internal quotations and citations omitted). Stated differently, where the claims have been dismissed on the merits, the petitioner "must demonstrate that reasonable jurists would find the district court's assessment of the constitutional claims debatable or wrong." Id. at 1604; Beazley v. Johnson, 242 F.3d 248, 263 (5th Cir.), cert. denied, 122 S.Ct. 329 (2001). When the claims have been dismissed on procedural grounds, the petitioner must show that "jurists of reason would find it debatable whether the petition states a valid claim of the denial of constitutional right and that jurists of reason would find it debatable whether the district court was correct in its procedural ruling." Slack, 120 S. Ct. at 1604. A district court may deny a certificate of appealability sua sponte, without requiring further briefing or argument. Alexander v. Johnson, 211 F.3d 895, 898 (5th Cir. 2000).

For the reasons set forth in the Memorandum and Recommendation, which has been adopted as the opinion of the Court, the Court determines that reasonable jurists would not debate the correctness of any of the substantive rulings. Thus, a certificate of appealability is DENIED.

The Clerk will enter this Order and send copies to all parties of record.

Signed at Houston, Texas this 4TH day of October, 2017.
