Plaintiffs,

vs.

CAUSE NO. A 05 CA 334 SS

FULBRIGHT & JAWORSKI, LLP,

Fulbright.

PLAINTIFFS' OBJECTIONS TO BILL OF COSTS

Plaintiffs make the following objections to Defendant Fulbright & Jaworski, L.L.P.'s request to enter its bill of costs.

A. Introduction

1. Plaintiffs are Immunocept, L.L.C., Patrice Ann Lee, and James Reese Matson; Defendant is Fulbright & Jaworski, L.L.P.
2. Plaintiffs sued Defendant for legal malpractice.
3. On March 24, 2006, the court granted summary judgment in favor of Defendant, and the clerk entered judgment on that same date.
4. On June 6, 2006, Defendant filed its bill of costs, attached as Exhibit A.

B. Argument

5. The prevailing party is entitled to an award only of taxable costs incurred in litigating the dispute. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(d)(1).
6. The attached bill of costs submitted by Defendant includes expenses that are not allowed by law. Defendant has listed several categories of documents in its bill of costs that by title alone are categories generally acceptable under 28 U.S.C. 1920, such as "fees and disbursements for printing" and "fees for exemplification and copies of papers necessarily obtained for use in the case." See page 1 of Defendant's Bill of Costs, attached hereto as Exhibit A. However, Defendant has included many expenses within the categories that do not belong and are not allowable expenses, thereby attempting to disguise improper expenses in categories that are generally acceptable under the statute. The following are a list of some of the clearly improper expenses submitted by Defendant based on information in the Defendant's own invoices:

C. Conclusion

Defendant's bill of costs includes charges for extra copies for convenience of counsel and charges for Defendant's own database services, all of which are improper costs under 28 U.S.C. 1920. As a result, the Court should sustain Plaintiffs' objections and deny these costs.
