ORDER ACCEPTING THE REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE

In a civil rights complaint brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 [ECF No. 6], Plaintiff James E. Jones (“Jones”), a state prisoner proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, requests a court-ordered investigation by the Texas Rangers or “fed[eral] internal affairs officers” into alleged racial discrimination, sexual assaults, threats, false disciplinary cases, and interference with mail deliveries at the Rogelio Sanchez Unit of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.<sup>1</sup>

The United States Magistrate Judge to whom the Court referred this matter has prepared a report and recommendation [ECF No.7].<sup>2</sup> In his report, the Magistrate Judge recommends that the Court dismiss Jones’s complaint. The Magistrate Judge reasons that Jones’s request for an investigation is not cognizable in a civil rights action.

Investigations into possible criminal activities and the prosecution of state or federal criminal offenses fall within the exclusive jurisdiction of the executive branch of the state and federal government. . . . As such, Plaintiff’s requested claim for relief is without an arguable basis in law and should be dismissed.<sup>3</sup>

The Magistrate Judge gave Jones fourteen days to file written objections to the report and recommendation.<sup>4</sup> A party who files timely written objections to a magistrate judge's report is entitled to a "de novo" review of those portions of the report to which the party objects.<sup>5</sup> As to other portions of the report or when a party does not file written objections, the Court applies a "clearly erroneous, abuse of discretion and contrary to law" standard of review.<sup>6</sup> After completing its review, the Court may accept, reject, or modify the report, in whole or in part.<sup>7</sup> To date, Jones has not responded to the report.<sup>8</sup>

Accordingly, after reviewing the report, the Court finds that the Magistrate Judge's proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law are neither clearly erroneous nor contrary to law.<sup>9</sup> Therefore, the Court enters the following orders:

1. The Court ACCEPTS the Magistrate Judge's report and recommendation [ECF No. 7].
2. The Court DISMISSES WITH PREJUDICE Plaintiff James E. Jones's complaint for failure to state a claim on which relief may be granted, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii) and 1915A(b)(1).
3. The Court DENIES all pending motions as moot.
4. The Court ADVISES Jones that this dismissal counts as a "STRIKE" pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).<sup>10</sup> Accordingly, the District Clerk is DIRECTED to e-mail or otherwise send a copy of this Order to the Office of the General Counsel for the Texas Department of Criminal Justice and to the Pro Se Clerk for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. Should Jones accumulate three strikes, he may be denied in forma pauperis status, and required to pay the full filing fee, when filing additional civil actions or appeals, unless he demonstrates that he is in imminent danger of serious physical injury.<sup>11</sup>
