JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION
 REGARDING DEADLINES FOR PROPOSED FINAL JUDGMENT AND
 PRE-JUDGMENT INTEREST
 SUBMISSION

Case No. 2:04CV00139

Judge Dale A. Kimball

JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION

In its July 16, 2008 Order, the Court directed Novell “to file a brief within 15 days of this Order describing what, if any, prejudgment interest Novell seeks based on the amount awarded in this Order” and “to file within ten days from the date of this order a Final Judgment consistent with these Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order, the court’s August 10, 2007 Memorandum Decision and Order, and the parties’ stipulations with respect to the disposition of certain causes of action.” (Docket No. 542 at 42, 43.)

Novell has informed SCO that it believes entry of Final Judgment is inappropriate given the pendency of claims subject to an arbitration-related stay and given the Bankruptcy Court’s reservation of issues pertaining to the entry of a constructive trust.

SCO has proposed a resolution of Novell’s objections to the entry of Final Judgment. SCO intends to provide Novell with material related to that resolution and expects to be able to do so within the next 10 days.

The parties are also meeting and conferring regarding the appropriate amount of prejudgment interest and hope to reach an agreed-upon figure.

The parties agree that they would benefit from additional time to resolve issues concerning the entry of final judgment and the award of prejudgment interest, and therefore jointly request that the Court extend deadlines for Novell’s final judgment and prejudgment interest submissions to August 22, 2008.
