MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER OVERRULING OBJECTION
TO MAGISTRATE JUDGE DECISION

Case No. 2:08-cv-414-DN-EJF

David Nuffer

Magistrate Judge Evelyn J. Furse

On October 31, 2012, Magistrate Judge Furse entered an Order granting in part and denying in part a motion by the United States for sanctions against attorney Stephen G. Homer based on his failure to attend his properly scheduled deposition (Docket No. 357). On November 28, 2012, in compliance with that Order, the United States submitted its statement of expenses (Docket No. 360). On March 24, 2014, Magistrate Judge Furse entered two Orders granting the United States' motions for attorneys' fees against Mr. Homer (Docket Nos. 399 and 400). On March 31, 2014, Mr. Homer filed an objection to these two Orders (Docket No. 401).¹

“Magistrate judges have the power to award attorney fees as non-dispositive discovery sanctions under 28 U.S.C. § 636.”² The district court reviews the magistrate judge's order awarding fees under a “clearly erroneous or contrary to law” standard of review.³ Under the clearly erroneous standard, the district court must affirm the decision of the magistrate judge unless the court “on the entire evidence is left with the definite and firm conviction that a mistake has been committed”⁴

¹ Although Mr. Homer states that he is objecting to both March 24, 2014 orders [399& 400], he only presents facts and argument relating to [400] which granted attorney's fees for his failure to appear for his deposition.

ORDER

Having read and considered the above referenced material, all related material, and Mr. Homer's objection, the court concludes that the magistrate's Orders were not clearly erroneous or contrary to law, and for the reasons set out in the Orders, Mr. Homer's objection is hereby OVERRULED.

DATED this 2nd day of May, 2014.
