SILICON VALLEY, California - Today, online giant Google, Inc announces that in an effort to help stimulate the economy they are launching Google Adwork - an online link posting program that will allow anyone to make a living working from home. The announcement was made during an international press conference that drew over 10 Million viewers.

Google CEO announces Google Adwork. A new public advertising program that will employ as many as 10,000 at home workers and pay \$30,000 - \$75,000 a year.

Google's CEO Larry Page says the innovative initiative will benefit his company and average people as well. "We know that times are hard right now and hiring this pool of online workers will not only allow thousands of Americans to earn a healthy salary from home, it will help Google do our job more thoroughly."

Job Description:

The official job description explains that the jobs will require home workers to post several small text advertisements on websites in the Google network. These ads will showcase products that are currently part of the Google Adwords system.

"The key is knowing that our home workers are not required to have extensive computer or internet knowledge, if you can send and receive email, you can take part in this exciting new opportunity" Larry Page told reporters.

Google is making it easy for anyone, beginner or expert to start making money online. Those that sign up quickly will receive free information kits that outline exactly how to get started. Oh my GOD I saw this on TV today and can't believe it. I just signed up and am waiting for my info kit to come. I spoke to Google on the phone and they said it'd take a few days. Can't wait!

And, of course, the economy will rebound as this "positive news" continues indefinitely as the American public (or the segment of it targeted by this program) takes advantage of what is basically "free money" being given out by Google, I mean come oooooon. Posting links isn't work, is too easy.

Nice strategy Google. First you make the best search engine then you find a way to actually use it for the good. I am doing this program and already beat my last job's pay. I never thought I'd say this, but THANK GOD I GOT FIRED!!!!!!

I guess that businesses are all bad after all. I actually got the free kit here and although I'm a computer idiot I managed to post enough links per day to make $250 a day, twice my old salary. Best part is! only work in the morning, right after taking the kids to bed. If I did this all day long, there's not telling how much money I could make.
Adam Aug-13

Um, this can't possibly work.

I am one of the beta testers and I can assure you this is no joke. In the two weeks that I've been using Google Adwork I've made $2500 and that's just the beginning. As I get faster at posting links it's only going to make more and more money.

I can honestly say that God has blessed my life with this one. I really need some quick income and wasn't sure how I was going to get it. When I saw this all over CNN & ABC today my jaw hit the floor, has anyone had success yet? I just signed up for an account.
Darwin was wrong Aug-13

Ok so how in the hell did I not know about this before?
Dawn Aug-13

Damn, I was hoping there would not be a major announcement about this. I've been doing the beta and making almost $500 a day. I hope not to many people sign up for this, I want it all for myself.
