UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

GOOGLE, INC :
VERSUS : OBJECTION TO SUBPOENA
PACIFIC WEBWORKS, INC : Civil Action No. 2:09-cv-1068-BSJ

GoDaddy sent us an email saying that a subpoena has been issued in this case against a domain we own called www.mygooglefortune.com. We set this site up thinking we were going to run list management services. However, we abandoned our plans about four days into creation and have not used the site. The site never sold anything and never conducted any business. It was not much more than a concept.

We object to the subpoena because we have not seen the subpoena and do not know what it says. We also object to the subpoena because we are not a part of the suit between Google and Pacific Webworks. Plus, GoDaddy is claiming we have to pay them to respond to the subpoena. We do not have the funds to pay for GoDaddy's attorney. Finally, we object to this subpoena because we have not had time to find an attorney to respond to this. The time frame to respond is today (Monday) or maybe tomorrow (Tuesday before 10 am) but we only had notice of this subpoena on Friday. It does not seem fair that we have so limited time to decide what we are going to do and basically no time to find an attorney.

The email from GoDaddy says the only way to object is to file an objection with the court in which the matter is pending. This is our objection.

On Jan 25, 2010.

Mr Paul
