Having considered Defendant's Motion to Compel and For Sanctions, and for good cause appearing,

THE COURT HEREBY ORDERS that the Motion to Compel and For Sanctions is granted and:

- (i) Public Engines is ORDERED to provide a complete production in response to ReportSee's document Request No. 2, before Public Engines' Rule 30(b)(6) deposition on November 11, 2010;
- (ii) Public Engines is ORDERED to provide a written, detailed description of the methods that it employed to retrieve documents responsive to ReportSee's Request No. 2 (including the identities of each custodian whose records were searched, the date(s) of the searches and any search terms or other search methods employed), and to provide a detailed explanation of how and why the San Jose Police Department emails attached at Exhibit 8 to ReportSee's Memorandum Supporting its Motion to Compel and For Sanctions have not been produced to date;
- (iii) Public Engines is ORDERED to provide a complete response to ReportSee's Interrogatory No. 12, with the exception of lost revenue calculations that its retained expert is preparing;
- (iv) Public Engines is prohibited from attempting to introduce at trial or for any other purpose in this Action, business records that relate to, refer to, describe, mention, or evidence its damages calculations, including timesheets, logs, attorneys' fee reports and records, and other documents – including correspondence – that would or could support any damages allegations, except for its 26(a)(2) report and any documents that have already been produced as of the date of ReportSee's Motion to Compel and For Sanctions; and

- (v) Public Engines is ORDERED to pay ReportSee's expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with its Motion to Compel and For Sanctions.

ENTERED this _____ day of _____, 2010.

BY THE COURT:

Honorable Samuel Alba
United States Magistrate Judge
