I. RECITALS

1. This matter was instituted by Plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“Commission” or “Plaintiff” or “EEOC”), an agency of the United States government, alleging that Defendant Mesa Systems, Inc. (“Defendant”) discriminated against the Charging Parties and other aggrieved individuals whose ethnic group or nationality favors a language other than English, as follows: (1) Charging Parties and other aggrieved individuals suffered disparate treatment in the terms and conditions of their employment when Defendant implemented a restrictive language policy or rule in its Salt Lake City, Utah, warehouse, subjected Hispanics to selective, more vigorous, and harsher enforcement of said policy or rule, and created and/or tolerated a hostile work environment based on national origin; (2) the restrictive language policy or rule had a disparate impact on Hispanics, Asians/Pacific Islanders, and other employees whose ethnic group or nationality favors a language other than English when it placed overly broad constraints on the speaking of languages other than English and was not job-related for the positions in question or consistent with business necessity; and (3) some of the Charging Parties and other aggrieved individuals who complained about discrimination were subjected to retaliation for engaging in conduct protected under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e, et seq. (“Title VII”).

2. The Parties to this Decree are Plaintiff EEOC and Defendant Mesa Systems, Inc.

3. The Parties, desiring to settle this action by an appropriate Consent Decree (“Decree”), agree to the jurisdiction of this Court over the Parties and the subject matter of this action, and agree to the power of this Court to enter a Consent Decree enforceable against Defendant.

4. As to the issues resolved, this Decree is final and binding upon the Parties and their successors and assigns.

5. For the purpose of amicably resolving disputed claims, the Parties jointly request this Court to adjudge as follows:

A. Injunctive Relief

19. Defendant, its officers, agents, successors, and other persons in active concert or participation with it, or any of them, are permanently enjoined from engaging in any employment practice which discriminates on the basis of national origin.

20. Defendant, its officers, agents, successors, and other persons in active concert or participation with them, or any of them, are permanently enjoined from engaging in reprisal or retaliation of any kind against any person because of such person's opposition to any practice made unlawful under the Americans with Disabilities Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Equal Pay Act, or the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008. Defendant shall not retaliate against a person because such person brings an internal complaint of discrimination with the Defendant; because such person files or causes to be filed a charge of discrimination with the Commission or any other agency charged with the investigation of employment discrimination complaints, or whose statements serve as the basis of a charge; or because such person testifies or participates in the investigation or prosecution of an alleged violation of these statutes. Defendant shall not retaliate in any manner against individuals identified as witnesses in this action or who assisted in the investigation giving rise to this action. Nor shall Defendant retaliate against any such persons identified as a witness or possible witnesses of discrimination in future investigations or proceedings.

B. Rescission of Restrictive Language Policy or Rule

21. Defendant will not have a restrictive language policy or rule which requires that only English and no other language be spoken in its Salt Lake City warehouse.

Defendant shall immediately, within twenty (20) business days from the entry of this Decree, communicate verbally to all of its Salt Lake City employees that any prior restrictive language policy or rule requiring that its Salt Lake City employees speak only English in the warehouse has been rescinded and is no longer Defendant's policy or rule, and Defendant will certify in writing to the EEOC that the verbal communication has occurred. Within twenty (20) days of the entry of this Decree, Defendant shall confirm with each of its Salt Lake City employees in writing in both English and Spanish that any prior restrictive language policy or rule requiring that its Salt Lake City employees speak only English in the warehouse has been rescinded and is no longer Defendant's policy or rule.

C. Human Resources Oversight

22. Defendant has employed a Director of Human Resources (DHR) with expertise in equal employment opportunity (EEO), human resources, and personnel matters and Defendant will continue to so employ a DHR for the duration of this Consent Decree. If the DHR separates from Defendant, Defendant will use all best efforts to hire a new DHR within forty-five (45) days.

23. The following is a list of responsibilities relative to this Consent Decree which are assigned to the DHR. It is the Parties' expectation that the DHR will regularly consult with Defendant's legal counsel and that legal counsel may assist the DHR in carrying out these functions. Among other things, the DHR will be responsible for:

- Assisting managers, supervisors, and human resources employees with their EEO, human resources, and personnel functions, as necessary;
- Oversight of investigations of complaints of discrimination;
- Coordinating Defendant's compliance with anti-discrimination laws;
- Oversight of Defendant's compliance with this Consent Decree;
- Maintaining records to be preserved under Section VIII ("Record Keeping and Reporting") of this Consent Decree;
- Submitting the reports required under Section VIII ("Record Keeping and Reporting") of this Consent Decree;
- Acting as the liaison between Defendant and the outside consultant(s);
- Assisting with the development and implementation of Defendant's EEO training program provided for in this Consent Decree;
- Assisting in the review and implementation of policies and procedures, as provided in Section VII.D ("EEO Policy Review") of this Consent Decree;
- Evaluating whether Defendant has taken appropriate and reasonable action to protect minority employees from national origin discrimination, national origin-based hostile work environment, and/or retaliation; and

- Reviewing records documenting employee complaints of discrimination or harassment based on national origin, including oral and written complaints, charges of discrimination, and investigative records relating to such complaints.

D. EEO Policy Review

24. Within sixty (60) days of the entry of this Decree, the Defendant shall review its existing EEO policies to conform with the law and revise, if necessary.

25. The written EEO policies must include at a minimum:

- A strong and clear commitment to preventing unlawful national origin discrimination and retaliation;
- A clear and complete definition of disparate treatment based on national origin and retaliation;
- A statement that discrimination based on national origin or retaliation is prohibited and will not be tolerated;
- A clear and strong encouragement of persons who believe they have been discriminated or retaliated against to report such concerns;
- The identification of specific individuals, with telephone numbers, to whom employees can report their concerns about discrimination, harassment, or retaliation;

- A clear explanation of the steps an employee must take to report discrimination or retaliation, which must include the options of either an oral or written complaint;
- An assurance that Defendant will investigate allegations of any activity that might be construed as unlawful discrimination, that such investigation will be prompt, fair, and reasonable, and conducted by its Director of Human Resources, who is specifically trained in receiving, processing, and investigating allegations of discrimination, and that, at a minimum, the investigation will include the following: (a) documentation of the complaint; (b) a finding of whether discrimination occurred; (c) a credibility assessment, as appropriate; (d) interviews of all potential victims and witnesses identified, including the individual(s) alleged to have participated in or condoned the unlawful conduct; (e) a review of all documents which might shed light on the allegation, where such exist; (f) contemporaneous notes of the investigation and conclusions; and (g) contemporaneous notes of all corrective and remedial measures where discrimination is found;
- An assurance that appropriate corrective action will be taken by Defendant to make victims whole and to eradicate the unlawful conduct within its workforce;
- A description of the consequences, up to and including termination, that will be imposed upon violators of Defendant's anti-discrimination policies;

- A promise of maximum feasible confidentiality for persons who report unlawful discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation, or who participate in an investigation into allegations of discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation; and
- An assurance of non-retaliation for persons who report unlawful discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation, and for witnesses who provide testimony or assistance in the investigation(s) of such unlawful discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation.

26. Within thirty (30) days after completion of the policy review required under Paragraphs 24 and 25 above, the written EEO policies shall be posted in a prominent location frequented by employees at Defendant's facilities in Salt Lake City, Utah, and distributed to each current employee in that location. The written EEO policies shall be distributed to all new employees when hired. Defendant shall make the written EEO policies available in alternative formats, as necessary, for persons with cognitive and print disabilities that may prevent them from reading the policies. Alternative formats will include but not be limited to an audiotape format.

27. Defendant shall not retain documents related to the investigation in any of the complainant's personnel files. These documents, instead, must be retained in a separate secure location. All disciplinary actions taken against employees for violation of Defendant's EEO policies will be retained in the violator's personnel file. In those cases in which no conclusion could be reached on the allegations, the investigation documents shall remain in the alleged violator's file indefinitely.

E. Training

28. At least twice annually, Defendant shall provide EEO training for all its Salt Lake City employees. Under this provision, employees will be trained at a minimum in the following areas: (a) the Defendant's policy and procedures for reporting alleged discrimination; (b) understanding the kind of conduct which may constitute unlawful discrimination or harassment; (c) the penalties for engaging in discriminatory behavior; (d) Defendant's non-retaliation policy; and (d) Defendant's procedures for handling accommodation requests. All training under this Paragraph 28 shall be at Defendant's selection and expense. Training may be by live presentation, on-line interactive training and/or computer training, or any combination of the foregoing. The training will be conducted as follows:

28.1. Non-managerial Employees: Defendant will provide non-managerial employees at least two (2) training sessions of one (1) hour duration each per year at its Salt Lake City warehouse. Attendance will be mandatory for every employee on the days of such training. Make-up sessions are not required unless an employee misses two (2) consecutive trainings in a year. At least one (1) of these meetings will focus on national origin discrimination and retaliation.

28.2. Managerial and Supervisory Employees: Defendant will require all individuals who work in a managerial or supervisory capacity, including but not limited to all General Managers, Operations Managers, Warehouse Managers, and Dispatchers who have authority to hire, assign work, discipline, and/or fire, to receive two (2) one (1) hour sessions per year of training regarding Title VII and other federal anti-discrimination laws. One (1) hour of the training must directly address national origin discrimination and retaliation, and one (1) hour must be instruction in the proper methods of receiving, communicating, investigating (where applicable), and ameliorating discrimination and retaliation. Defendant shall emphasize with managerial and supervisory employees that due to their positions of responsibility, such employees (a) must be particularly vigilant not to discriminate, whether consciously or because they rely on subconscious stereotypes; (b) must be sensitive to how their actions or words might be perceived by subordinate employees; and (c) must avoid the temptation to retaliate against an employee because a report or complaint is made, or might be made, against them. Additionally, Defendant will require employees who are newly hired or recently promoted into a managerial or supervisory position to complete the requisite one (1) hour of report/complaint-handling training and one (1) hour of national origin and retaliation-related training within twenty (20) days of being hired or promoted. The training under this Paragraph 28.2 must be provided by the Director of Human Resources.

28.3. Human Resource Employees: Defendant will require the Director of Human Resources to receive at least eight (8) hours of training annually regarding Title VII and other federal anti-discrimination laws. Two (2) of the eight (8) hours must directly address national origin discrimination and retaliation, and at least two (2) hours must be instruction in the proper methods of receiving, communicating, investigating (where applicable), and ameliorating discrimination and retaliation, including the proper procedures for documenting and preserving evidence of discrimination and retaliation, archiving the Defendant's investigation of complaints, as well as detailing the consequences and result of the investigation where discrimination and/or retaliation is found. The training under this Paragraph 28.3 must be prepared or provided by outside vendors.

28.4. Training on Investigative Techniques: The Director of Human Resources, who has responsibility for responding to or investigating reports or complaints of discrimination and/or retaliation, shall be provided four (4) additional hours of annual training instructing on accepted professional standards for receiving and investigating reports/complaints of discrimination and retaliation, including such matters as witness interview techniques, other evidence-gathering techniques, maintaining investigative notes and records, legal analysis of the evidence, and methods for eliminating and ameliorating violations of anti-discrimination law. The training under this Paragraph 28.4 must be prepared or provided by outside vendors.

29. Defendant agrees that the first such training session for each employee group identified in Paragraph 28 above will take place within sixty (60) days after the Court's entry of this Decree. Defendant shall require that all of its personnel both register and attend the training sessions. The Commission, at its discretion, may designate one or more Commission representatives to attend any of the training sessions described above, and the Commission representatives shall have the right to attend, observe, and fully participate in all of the sessions. Defendant shall provide the Commission with fifteen (15) days notice that a training session will be conducted, or alternatively, Defendant may provide a comprehensive schedule of trainings planned for the year or for a number of months, if such is more convenient. Defendant shall provide the EEOC with copies of the training materials at least fifteen (15) days prior to each training session.

F. Notice Posting

30. Within five (5) business days after the Court's entry of this Decree, Defendant shall post in its Salt Lake City warehouse in a conspicuous place frequented by employees the Notice attached as Attachment C to this Decree. The Notice shall be the same type, style, and size as set forth in Attachment C. The Notice shall remain posted for the duration of this Decree. If the Notice becomes defaced or illegible, Defendant will replace it with a clean copy. Defendant shall certify to the Commission in writing within ten (10) days of entry of this Decree that the Notice has been properly posted and shall provide re-certification in each of the semi-annual reports required under the Reporting provisions of this Consent Decree.

G. EEO Compliance as a Component of Management Evaluation

31. Defendant shall, within sixty (60) days of the entry of this Consent Decree, and at least continuously for the duration of this Decree, develop and implement a management evaluation and compensation system which includes an EEO compliance component, including compliance with policies and laws prohibiting retaliation, and compliance with this Decree as factors which shall be used to evaluate all managerial and supervisory employees, including but not limited to all managers, co-managers, assistant managers, and district or regional managers responsible for Defendant's Salt Lake City warehouse. Defendant shall also, within sixty (60) days of the Court's entry of this Decree, and at least continuously for the duration of this Decree, advise Defendant's managerial and supervisory officials that the amount of monetary bonuses that managers and supervisors may be eligible for during the duration of this Decree are subject to reductions based on established non-compliance with EEO policies and procedures, policies, and laws prohibiting retaliation, and this Decree.

IX. RETENTION OF JURISDICTION AND ENFORCEMENT OF DECREE

35. This Court shall retain jurisdiction of this cause of action for purposes of compliance with this Decree and entry of such further orders or modifications as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate equal employment opportunities for employees.

36. There is no private right of action to enforce Defendant's obligations under the Decree, and only the Commission, its successors, or assigns may enforce compliance herewith.

37. The Commission may petition this Court for compliance with this Decree at any time during which this Court maintains jurisdiction over this action. Should the Court determine that Defendant has not complied with this Decree, appropriate relief, including extension of this Decree for such period as may be necessary to remedy its non-

38. Absent extension, this Decree shall expire by its own terms at the end of the thirty-sixth (36th) month from the date of entry without further action by the Parties.

X. EEOC AUTHORITY
